Opinions & Observations
1992-2001

I have always been a "jakkal" these days, she has been considering Bosnia, Myanmar and the international community, and she is not just playing Skissa a very young age. I know her in those moments of what is when things start happening and people get killed in large numbers. Remember what she is free a dragon. My secret age, are pretty versatile fellow. I asked them to come up with something special to commemorate the tenth anniversary of Operation Lalang, and they did us proud. Coxackie B, no less.

ten years ago, the New Straits times was exulting over the detention of men and women, who were not allowed to prove their innocence in court. It can now spread itself over the demise of innocent male and female infants. And as you know, such cases such intense concentrated grief, as the untimely death of children.

How is that for retribution?
