

ISLAM AND THE WORLD

By
ABUL HASAN ALI NAQWI

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword by Saiyid Qutub	1
Translator's Note by M. Asif Kidwai	7

CHAPTER ONE

BEFORE THE ADVENT OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD 13

Sixth Century A. D. — Spiritual Torpor — Christianity — Religious strife in the Roman Empire — Social Discontent and Economic chaos — North-Western Europe — Jews — Iran — King-worship — Racial Pride — Fire-worship — Buddhism — The Central-Asia Races — India The Ever-increasing Gods — Sexual Wantonnes — Caste System — The Unfortunate Sudras — The Position of Women in Indian Society — Arabia — The Pre-Islamic Idols — Social Debasement — The Lot of Women — Tribal Prejudice — Warlike Temperament — A General Survey — Absolute Monarchy — Egypt and Syria under the Romans — Taxes in Iran — Royal Treasuries and Private Wealth of the Iranian Emperors — Castes and classes — Peasants of Iran — Loathesome Extravagance and Luxury — Rulers or Robbers — The Rich and the Poor — World-wide Gloom.

CHAPTER TWO

ADVENT OF THE PROPHET 45

The Era of Ignorance — A Re-appraisal — Ineffectiveness of Half Measures — Difference between a Prophet and a Leader — Unravelling of the Knot of Human Destiny — Ignorance up in Arms against Islam — The First Muslims — Religious and spiritual Education of the Companions — In Medina — Highest pinnacle of Development — History's most Remarkable Revolution — Fruits of Faith — Self-Criticism — Honesty and Trustworthiness — Deposition of Man-made gods — Rare courage — Implicit surrender — True knowledge — Bouquet of Humanity — Social Responsibility — Civic Conscience — The Real Purpose of Love — Exceptional Devotion — Unprecedented Obedience — New Men — A new Ummat — A Well-blended Body of Men.

CHAPTER THREE

THE ERA OF MUSLIM GLORY 75

Characteristics — Uniqueness of the Companions — Islamic View of Life — Effects of the Rise of Muslim Power — Islam and Humanity — Revival of Humanity — Islam and Christianity — Islam and Europe — Islam and India — Islam's Influence in Decadence.

CHAPTER FOUR

MUSLIM DECADENCE 91

Beginnings — Jihad and Ijtihad — The Umayyads and the Abbasids — Evils of Monarchy — Philosophical Hair-splitting — Religious Innovations — Revival and Restoration — The Crusades and the Zangi Dynasty — The Death of Salahuddin — Muslims still an Obstacle in the Path of Ignorance

— The Tartar Invasion — The Egyptians push back the Tartars — Conquerors of Muslims become Captives of Islam — The Impact of the Tartar Invasion on the Muslim World — The Advent of the Ottoman Turks — Advantages enjoyed by the Ottomans — Decline of the Ottoman Turks — Intellectual Sterility not peculiar to the Turks — Eastern Contemporaries of the Turks — Individual Efforts — Europe's Scientific and Industrial Progress

CHAPTER FIVE

THE RISE OF THE WEST AND ITS CONSEQUENCES 113

The Genealogy of Western Civilization — Greek Civilization — Roman Civilization — Christianity spreads over the Roman Empire — Paganization of Christianity — Progress of Monasticism — Consequences of Monasticism — Corruption of the Clergy — Struggle between Church and State — Misuse of Power by Church — Pollution of Scriptures — Struggle between Religion and Science and Tyranny of the Church — The Revolt — Precipitancy of the Intellectuals — Western Materialism — Christianity or Materialism — God-forgetfulness — An Easterner's View — Materialism in Spiritualism — Economic 'Pantheism' — Nothing exists except Sex and Hunger — Darwinian Theory of Evolution — The Growth of Nationalism — Separate Worlds — Hatred and Fear — The Weaker Nations — National Prestige — Enlightenment or Trade — Disparity between Trade and Ethics — Scientific Progress — The Islamic View — Disparity Between Power and Morality — Misuse of Scientific Inventions — Destructive Nature of Scientific Inventions.

CHAPTER SIX

THE REAL LOSS OF MANKIND UNDER WESTERN DOMINATION 158

Absence of Spiritual Sense — Dearth of the Spirit of God-seeking — The Epidemic of Worldliness — Moral Degradation — Muslim Rulers of India — Shamsuddin Iltutmish — Sultans of Gujerat — Sher Shah Suri — Aurangzeb — Abdur Rahim Khan-i-Khanan Asaf Khan — Degeneration

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE WORLD OF ISLAM IN THE FIELD OF ACTION 179

Retrospect — Western Nations — Universal Sway of Materialism — Communist Russia — Eastern Nations — Muslim, an Ally of Paganism — Ray of Hope — Standard-bearers of Faith — The Message — Renaissance of Faith — Maturity of Outlook — Intellectual Core — No Place for Selfishness — Industrial and Military Self-sufficiency — Educational Reorganization

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE LEADERSHIP OF THE ARAB WORLD 198

Muhammad the Prophet of Islam — Faith is the Real Strength of the Arabs — The Supreme Importance of Keeping up the Martial and Manly Spirit of the Arabs — A Curb on Extravagance and the Liquidation of the growing Disparity among People — Self-sufficiency in Finance, Commerce and Industry — The Personal Sacrifice made by the Arabs in the past for the Welfare and Happiness of Mankind — The Expectations of the Islamic World from the Arab World.