

PUNISHMENT IN ISLAMIC LAW

MOHAMED S. EL-AWA

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Mohamed S. El-Awa', with a long horizontal flourish underneath.

American Trust Publications

CONTENTS

	Page
Introduction
Chapter I: The Fixed Punishments (al-Hudud)	1
I. Definition	1
II. Classification	1
III. The Punishment for Theft (al-Sariqa)	2
1. The Value of the Stolen Property (Nisab al-Sariqa)	3
2. How the Hand Should Be Cut Off (Maken al-Qati')	5
3. The Question of Custody (al-Hirz)	6
IV. Armed Robbery (al-Hiraba)	7
1. The Site of Commission of Hiraba	9
2. The Carrying-Out of the Punishments (Tamfidl al-Uqubat)	10
3. Banishment (al-Nafi)	12
V. Illicit Sexual Relations (al-Zina)	13
1. Stoning as a Punishment (al-Rajm)	15
2. The Nature of the Punishment for Zina	17
3. The Distinction Between Married (Muhsan) and Unmarried (Ghair-Muhsan)	18
VI. False Accusations of Unchastity (al-Qadhf)	20
1. The Clarity or Insinuateness of the Accusation	21
2. The Categorization of the Punishment	22
3. The Effect of the Criminal's Repentance	23
VII. A Survey of the Hadd Punishments	23
1. Retribution and the Hadd Punishments	25
2. The Concept of Expiation	28
3. Deterrence and the Hadd Punishments	29
3.1 Disinheritance and Deprivation of Legacy	32
3.2 Rejection of the Offender's Testimony	33
4. Reformation and the Hadd Punishments	34

Chapter II: Categorization of the Punishments for Drinking and Apostasy (Shrub al-Khamr wal-Ridda)	43
I. Traditional Islamic Law	43
II. The Punishment for Drinking	44
1. Facts Concerning the Prophetic Traditions Related to the Punishment for Drinking	45
2. The Alleged Consensus	47
3. Individual Juristic Views	48
III. The Punishment for Apostasy	49
1. Apostasy in the Qur'an	50
2. The Sunna and Apostasy	51
IV. A View Concerning Apostasy	53
V. A Survey of the Punishments for Drinking and Apostasy	56
1. Drinking	58
2. Apostasy	61
Chapter III: Retaliation (al-Qisas): The Punishment for Homicide and Injuries	69
I. The Historical Background	69
II. Retaliation and Blood-Money	71
III. Disputed Points Concerning the Infliction of Qisas	77
1. Qisas Against a Group for the Killing of a Single Person	78
2. Qisas Against a Muslim for Killing a Non-Muslim	78
3. Qisas Against a Father for Killing His Son	80
IV. The Application of Qisas in Muslim Countries	81
V. The Classification of Homicide	83
VI. A Survey of the Law of Qisas	85
Chapter IV: The Discretionary Punishment (al-Ta'zir)	96
I. Definition	96
II. Ta'zir in the Qur'an and Sunna	97
III. Kinds of Ta'zir Punishments	100
1. Admonition (al-Wa'z)	101
2. Reprimand (al-Tawbikh)	101
3. Threat (al-Tahdid)	101
4. Boycott (al-Hajr)	102
5. Public Disclosure (al-Tashhir)	102

6. Fines and the Seizure of Property (al-Gharamah wa Musadarah)	103
7. Imprisonment (al-Habs)	105
8. Flogging (al-Jald)	106
9. The Death Penalty (al-Ta'zir bil-Qatl)	108
10. Ta'zir as an Additional Punishment	109
IV. The Judge's Discretionary Power	110
1. Usury (al-Riba)	112
2. False Testimony (Shahadat al-Zur)	112
3. Breach of Trust (Khiyanat al-Amanah)	113
4. Insult (al-Sabb)	113
5. Bribery (al-Rishwa)	113
V. Determination of Offences Under the Principle of Ta'zir	114
VI. A Survey of the Law of Ta'zir	116
Chapter V: The Law of Evidence in Criminal Cases	124
I. Introduction	124
II. Testimony (Shahada)	125
1. Testimony in Cases of Zina	126
III. Confession (Iqrar)	127
IV. The Judge's Personal Observation ('Ilm al-Qadi)	129
V. Circumstantial Evidence (al-Qara'in)	130
Conclusion: The Islamic Penal System and Contemporary Muslim Societies	134
Bibliography	139
Index	147