

KEY · TO · THE GARDEN

دار الصحاوي
للطباعة والنشر

ḤABĪB AḤMĀD MASHHŪR AL-ḤADDĀD

CONTENTS

Translator's Preface	vii
Foreword by Shaykh Ḥasanayn Makhlūf	ix
Prologue	1
1 The Phrase of Tawḥīd and its meaning	3
2 The science which investigates its meaning and proofs	5
3 God alone is the True Deity	7
4 All beings are in need of God	8
5 The ignorance and misguidedness of the polytheists	10
6 Existent beings are evidences of the Divine Ability	13
7 Existent beings extol Him (Exalted is He!)	15
8 Rights of the Phrase of Tawḥīd over mankind	17
9 Islam is conditional on believing both Testimonies	19
10 Evidences of God's existence and oneness	21
11 A fine poem by Imām 'Abdallāh ibn Ja'far Madhar	23
12 The effects of Tawḥīd and of its noble Phrase	26
13 An important statement	29
14 An actual incident	32
15 Uttering the Two Testimonies is mandatory for entering Islam	33
16 Things which must be taught first	35
17 The creed of Imām al-Ḥaddād	37
18 Merits of the Noble Phrase	41
19 Good and bad endings to life	44
20 The Sunna is the second source of the Sharī'a	47
21 An observation	50
22 The sedition of the literal translation of the Qur'ān	51
23 Contempt for the rank of religion	54
24 Kufr and Denial	57
25 People of kufr are legion	60

26	Different kinds of polytheism	62
27	The crime of deviation in religion	66
28	Other kinds of deviation	67
29	A warning against casually accusing someone of kufr	70
30	The inviolability and rank of the Muslim	73
31	“To insult a Muslim is corruption, to wage war on him is kufr ”	75
32	An analogy used by God for the Phrase of Tawḥīd and that of kufr	78
33	Contemplation [Shuhūd]	82
34	Reflection [fikr]	85
35	Kinds of reflection	87
36	An example of how to reflect on the favours of God	92
37	The reminder, and inward struggle	94
38	Shari‘a and Ḥaqīqa	97
39	Valuable books on the landmarks of wayfaring [sulūk]	101
40	God, the Majestic and High	102
41	Remembrance [dhikr] of God the Exalted	104
42	The recitation of the Qur’ān is among the best forms of dhikr	109
43	Kinds of dhikr	112
44	The dhikr of the gnostics	116
45	Reciting poetry during sessions of dhikr	119
46	The purpose of ṭarīqa , and the method of its people	122
47	The qualities and merit of the Shaykh who trains	124
48	To be of good counsel to every Muslim is a duty	130
49	The sedition of the deviationists	133
50	Jihād in the path of God, and aspiring for martyrdom	136
	Notes	143
	Glossary of Arabic Terms	147
	Index	150