

MUSLIM FRIENDS

Their Faith and Feeling

An Introduction to Islam

Roland E. Miller

Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| Transliteration System | 10 |
| Preface | 11 |
| 1. Meet My Muslim Friends | 13 |
| Friendship and the study of Islām. Meet Abdulla and Amina. Salaam aleikum! | |
| 2. Muslim Population: A World of Peoples, A Community of Faith | 23 |
| The global nature of Islām. Muslim demographics. The Muslim sense of religious family. | |
| 3. My Muslim Friends Believe in God | 35 |
| The faith. The mosque. The nature of Allāh. The beautiful names. Divine attributes. | |
| 4. The World and Humanity Belong to God | 56 |
| God is connected with the world. Creation. God's relation with the world and people. Our response to God. | |
| 5. My Muslim Friend Honors the Prophet | 76 |
| The honored place of Muhammad. Pre-Islāmic Arabia. Jews and Christians. Muhammad's early life and career. Gabriel and the first Revelation. | |

MUSLIM FRIENDS: THEIR FAITH AND FEELING

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 6. | The Prophet in Mecca: Struggle and Trial | 91 |
| | The message is proclaimed. Six primary themes. The response of the Meccans. Struggle and trial. | |
| 7. | The Prophet in Medina: Triumph and Advance | 103 |
| | Muhammad as a statesman. The Constitution of Medina. Six problems met and solved. Mecca is overcome. Personality and death of the Prophet. | |
| 8. | My Muslim Friend Adheres to the Qurʾān | 129 |
| | Its high place and names. Its origin, arrangement, and language. Its teaching and study. The development of clergy and their expositions. | |
| 9. | Interpreting the Qurʾān: Ḥadīth and Other Sources of Faith | 153 |
| | Who has the right to interpret? Ḥadīth and sunna . Analogy and consensus. What is the correct interpretation? | |
| 10. | The Tapestry of Faith: Basic Muslim Beliefs and the Destiny of Believers | 168 |
| | Angels. Prophets. Sacred books. Day of Judgment. Sin and salvation in Islām. Heaven and hell. | |
| 11. | The Pillars of Obedience: The Basic Muslim Devotional Practices | 210 |
| | Confession of faith. Prayer. Fasting. Almsgiving. Pilgrimage. | |
| 12. | Muslim Piety and Spiritual Struggle: Taqwā and Jihād | 241 |
| | The life of piety and righteousness. The struggle against evil and the issue of violence. | |
| 13. | My Muslim Friend Lives by the Law | 261 |
| | The law feeling and law as a way of life. The origin and nature of the Shariʿa. Its principles. How it works. Its history and reform. | |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 14. The Muslim Rhythm of Life: Festivals, Family, and Rites of Passage | 290 |
| The Muslim calendar. Major and minor festivals. Birth, circumcision, marriage. The family: women and children. | |
| 15. History and Heroes: My Muslim Friends are Proud | 313 |
| The first four heroes: Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān, ‘Alī. The first three heroines: Khadija, ‘Ā’isha, Fāṭima. Ḥusain and Kerbela. | |
| 16. Muslim History Unfolds: The Shaping of Islām and Its Memories | 330 |
| The remarkable spread of Islām. Relations with other religions. The Muslim world expands and divides. From Ummayyads to Ottomans. Muslims face the present. | |
| 17. Glimpses of Muslim Thought: Sunnī, Shī‘a and Sūfi | 351 |
| An overview. The Practical Questions: authentic leadership, authentic faith. The Intellectual Questions: theology and philosophy; al-Ash‘arī. The Spiritual Questions: Sūfis and saints; al-Ghazālī. | |
| 18. My Friends Have Fears and Hopes | 392 |
| Muslims have fears and hopes. Abdulla and Amina and their children face the future. | |
| Appendix A. Muslim Population: World and Country | 396 |
| Appendix B. Glossary of Terms | 401 |
| Bibliography | 409 |
| Index | 419 |