

CONSPIRACIES AGAINST THE QURAN

Sayed Abdul Wadud

12

D

CONTENTS

Chapter 1	THE DIVINE GUIDANCE	1
Chapter 2	OTHER GODS	5
	Intermediaries between man and God
	a) Worship of the Messengers of God
	b) Priest worship
	c) Ancestral worship
	d) Sect worship
	e) Tradition Worship
	f) Pir worship
	g) Worship of the dead
	h) Worship of the past
	i) Leader worship
Chapter 3	SABOTAGE OF ISLAM	19
	The underground offensive by the enemies of Islam with the ulterior motives of - firstly to promote the political weakening of the Muslim Ummat and secondly to pollute the basic ideology of the Quran.
Chapter 4	THE QURANIC WAY OF LIFE	58
	A sinister propaganda against the institution of JEHAD by the non-Muslims - ANOTHER CONSPIRACY
Chapter 5	CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE QURANIC TEXT	74
	Ahadis related to the Quranic text
	The Quran itself explodes the myth of the conspiracy against the Quranic text.
	The Quran laid stress on writing
	Muhammad (peace be upon him) himself used to dictate the revealed message.
	Conspiracies against the Quran
	-The Quran was rehearsed side by side with its descent
	-The Quran in the form of a book safe from corruption and invention
	-The Material used by Muhammad for writing the Quran, was parchment paper
	-Scribes who used to write the Quran were honourable, pious and just -Learning of the Quran by heart
	-Daily recitation of the entire revealed message
	-Revelation instructed the sequence, the assemblage and even the explanation of the Quranic text
	-God took upon Himself the safety of the Quranic text
	-The characteristics of the Quran as a book

- a) Description
  - (i) General description
  - (ii) Mysticism and Religion
  - (iii) Brief description in relation to religious groups
- b) A useless attempt by the Western writers to find out seeds of mysticism in the holy Quran
- c) Fundamental issues involved in the above description of mysticism-
  - (i) What is the utility and ethical value of mysticism
  - (ii) Is the Self as described in the mystic sense compatible with 'Nafs' or Self described by the Quran
  - (iii) Is the concept of mystic consciousness compatible with the Quranic teachings? If not, is Sufism not an alien growth on the soil of Islam? Is it not the outcome of a CONSPIRACY against the Quran? Significance and value of certain terms used in Sufism, in the light of the Quran
  - (iv) Is the concept of mystic consciousness simple and innocent, or has it been the cause of mischief and corruption in the human world under the guise of inner experience?
- d) Mullaism and Mysticism
- e) Poetry and Mysticism
- f) Iqbal and Mysticism