

The Jewels of the Qur'an

AL-GHAZALI'S THEORY

Muhammad Abul Quasem

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|----|
| INTRODUCTION | 9 |
| CONTENTS OF THE BOOK IN DETAIL | 15 |
| PART ONE | |
| Chapter | |
| 1. The Qur'ān is like an ocean which covers various types of jewels and valuables | 19 |
| 2. The aims of the Qur'ān and its valuables are of six kinds | 21 |
| 3. An explanation of the six aims of the Qur'ān | 23 |
| 4. Branching off of all sciences from the ten divisions of the Qur'ān, and an explanation of grades of sciences | 34 |
| 5. Stemming off of the sciences of the ancients and the moderns from the Qur'ān | 45 |
| 6. The meaning of the statement that the Qur'ān comprises red brimstone, greatest antidote, strongest musk, and all other valuables and jewels | 49 |
| 7. Why the entities of the invisible world are explained in the Qur'ān by means of similitudes from the visible world | 53 |
| 8. Comprehension of the connection between the invisible world and the visible world | 56 |
| 9. The allegories of red brimstone, greatest antidote, strongest musk, aloe-wood, corundum, and pearls | 59 |
| 10. The benefit of employing allegories in the Qur'ān | 62 |
| | 7 |

| | |
|--|----|
| 11. Variance in the excellence of Qur'ānic verses | 64 |
| 12. Secrets of the Sūra of the Opening, and how it comprises eight of the ten valuables of the Qur'ān | 66 |
| 13. The Sūra of Opening is the key to all doors of Paradise | 73 |
| 14. Why the Verse of the Throne is considered the chief of the Qur'ānic verses | 75 |
| 15. Why the value of the Sūra of Sincerity is equal to that of a third part of the Qur'ān | 79 |
| 16. Why the Sūra of Yā Sīn is the heart of the Qur'ān | 81 |
| 17. Why the Verse of the Throne is regarded the chief of the Qur'ānic verses. Why the Sūra of Opening is the best of all sūras | 82 |
| 18. The condition of the gnostics | 84 |
| 19. The reason for stringing the jewels and the pearls of the Qur'ān on two separate strings | 87 |

PART TWO

Chapter

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. The jewels of the Qur'ān | 89 |
| 2. The pearls of the Qur'ān | 156 |

CONCLUSION ON THE TWO CLASSES OF VERSES

| | |
|---|-----|
| Why the discussion of Qur'ānic verses has been confined to the classes of jewels and pearls | 224 |
|---|-----|

| | |
|--------------|-----|
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | 225 |
|--------------|-----|

INDEX

| | |
|------------------------------------|---------|
| General Index | 230 |
| Index of Qur'ānic sūras and verses | 240-244 |