

Islam & Business

NIK MOHAMED AFFANDI BIN NIK YUSOFF
EDITED BY ISMAIL NOOR

PELANDUK

Contents

Foreword
Preface
Editor's Note

Part I

Introduction

1. Objective 3
2. The Birth of Muhammad (s.a.w.) and Revelation of the Qur'an in a Business Environment 5
3. Islam as ad-Deen 13

Part II

Islamic Economic System

4. How Unique is the Islamic Economic System? 25
5. Market Economy in Islam 35
6. Justice in the Islamic Economy 45
7. Is the Islamic Financial System Competitive? 53
8. Islamic Principles on Human Resource Management 71

Part III

Concepts and Principles of Business in Islam

9. Islamic Business Concepts 83
10. Major Islamic Principles of Business 91

ISLAM AND BUSINESS

11. Why is Absolute Honesty the Basis of Islamic Business? 99
12. Business as Service to Mankind 109
13. Partnership and Business Network in Islam 119
14. How Reasonable, Just and Fair Should Profit Be? 137
15. Open Competition and Competitiveness 157
16. Efficiency and Business Cost 167
17. Maximisation of Output 177
18. Truthful Business Promotion 183
19. Productive Role of Middlemen 193
20. Dynamism and Creativity 201
21. Courteous and Helpful Service 211
22. Do Islam's Prohibitions Restrict Business? 217
23. How Does Islam Perceive Business Success? 235

Part IV

Conclusion

24. Honesty as Competitive Edge 261
25. Why is Business So Essential for Muslims? 267

Bibliography 273

Index 275