

ALFRED HERRHAUSEN SOCIETY
FOR INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE

Lehky

SOCIETY IN PARALYSIS
DURING TIMES OF CHANGE

– Reasons, Consequences, Remedies –

SCHÄFFER POESCHEL

Contents

Introduction

Introduction

Hilmar Kopper

Chairman of the Board of Patrons of the Alfred Herrhausen
Society for International Dialogue, Frankfurt am Main . . . 1

Society in paralysis during times of change

Lord Dahrendorf

St. Antony's College, Oxford 5

Obstacles and challenges to democracy in the developed societies

Jean-Pierre Chevènement

Member of the Assemblée Nationale, Paris, and Mayor of Belfort 17

Beyond left and right: a new political era in the U.S.A.

William Marshall

President of the Progressive Policy Institute,
Washington 29

How can better knowledge produce better results?

Remarks on the dialogue among science, business and politics

Edzard Reuter

Chairman of the Management Board of Daimler-
Benz AG, Stuttgart 45

Demand democracy or democratic participation?

Dr. Brigitte Seebacher-Brandt

Unkel 57

Paralysis through bureaucratization and regulation – the way forward

Professor Dr. W. Möschel

University of Tübingen, Tübingen 69

German fears – what causes them, and the consequences they have for innovation and progress

Professor Dr. H.-J. Quadbeck-Seeger

Member of the Management Board of BASF AG,

Ludwigshafen 87

Social paralysis versus capacity for progress – the example of gene technology

Professor Dr. Jozef Schell

Director of the Max Planck Institute for Food and Agricultural Research, Cologne 105

Science and the crisis of progress

Professor Alain Touraine

Ecole des hautes études en sciences sociales, Paris 119

Closing remarks

Hilmar Kopper 137

Annex

List of speakers 139

List of participants 140

Alfred Herrhausen Society for International Dialogue 145

Members of the Board of Patrons 147

Previous publications 148