

THIRD EDITION

understanding public policy

THOMAS R. DYE

contents

preface xi

1

policy analysis

the thinking man's response to demands for relevance 3

Policy analysis in political science . Why study public policy?

Policy analysis and policy advocacy .

Policy analysis in action—social scientists and the "busing" issue .

Policy analysis and the quest for "solutions" to America's problems

Bibliography

2

models of politics

some help in thinking about public policy 19

Models for policy analysis .

Institutionalise!: Policy as institutional activity .

- Group theory: Policy as group equilibrium .
- Elite theory: Policy as elite preference
- Rationalism: policy as efficient goal achievement .
- Incrementalism: Policy as variations on the past .
- Game theory: Policy as rational choice in competitive situations
- Systems theory: Policy as system output .
- Models: How to tell if they are helping or not . Bibliography

3

civil rights

elite mass interaction 43

- Elite mass attitudes and civil rights .
- The development of civil rights policy .
- Mass resistance to civil rights policy .
- "De facto" school segregation and busing .
- Congress and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 .
- National "fair housing" policy .
- Equality and black-white "life chances" .
- Public policy and "affirmative action" . Women in America .
- Abortion and the Right to Life . Summary . Bibliography

4

crime, violence, and repression

elite response to mass disorder 75

- The problem of crime . Crime and the courts .
- Crime deterrence as public policy .
- Prisons and correctional policies .
- Death as punishment . Federal law enforcement policy .
- Violence in black ghettos . Assessing the causes of riots .
- Elite and mass reaction to racial violence . Summary .
- Bibliography

5

poverty

the search for a rational strategy    93

- Poverty in America . . . Poverty as inequality . . .
- The curative strategy—the War on Poverty . . .
- Federal manpower programs . . .
- The Economic Opportunity Act . . .
- Why we lost the War on Poverty . . .
- The public service jobs controversy . . . Summary . . .
- Bibliography

6

welfare and health

the limits of rationalism    111

- Rationality and irrationality in welfare policy . . .
- The punitive strategy—early welfare policy . . .
- The preventative strategy—social security . . .
- Intended and unintended consequences of social security . . .
- Medical care for the aged and poor . . .
- The alleviative strategy—public assistance . . .
- The welfare mess: Consequences unintended . . .
- New strategies for income maintenance . . . Summary . . .
- Bibliography

7

education

the group struggle    135

- The federal role in education . . .
- Federal aid to education and the group struggle . . .
- Reading, writing, and religion in the courts . . .

- The formal structure of educational decision making .
- The informal structure of educational groups .
- The challenge of school finance: Haves and have-nots .
- Public higher education . Summary . Bibliography

8

population, energy and the environment

group stalemate 159

- The world population explosion .
- Pollution and the environment .
- The environmentalists: Man against technology .
- The regulatory quagmire . The energy crisis .
- Energy: The competing interests . Summary . Bibliography

9

urban affairs

institutional arrangements and public policy 181

- Dilemmas of urban policy . HUD—mortgage insurance .
- HUD—public housing . HUD—urban renewal .
- Structural problems in federal urban policy .
- Federal assistance for cities: New York faces bankruptcy .
- Summary . Bibliography

10

priorities and price tags

dimensions of institutional activity 197

- Dimensions of government spending .
- Wars, depressions, and government activity .
- Identifying national priorities .
- Public policy and the federal system . Federal grants-in-aid .

- Revenue sharing: A new direction in federalism .
 Some conclusions about government spending . Bibliography

11

budget and taxes

incrementalism at work 215

- Incrementalism in budget making .
 The formal budgetary process . The stability of public policy .
 The federal budget .
 Tax policy: Who bears the burdens of government? .
 Tax reform and tax "loopholes" .
 Spending policy: Who enjoys the benefits of government? .
 Summary . Bibliography

12

defense policy

strategies for serious games 235

- Deterrence strategy and nuclear war .
 The evolution of American defense policy .
 Strategic Arms Limitation Agreement—SALT and SALT II .
 Nuclear war games . Conventional war games .
 Is the U.S. Number Two in defense? . Summary .
 Bibliography

13

inputs, outputs, and black boxes

a systems analysis of state policies 267

- Extending the boundaries of policy analysis .
 Economic resources and public policy: Previous research .
 Economic resources and levels of public spending and service .

- Federal grants as "outside money" .
- Stability and change in input-output relationships .
- Politics, environment, and policy: Previous research .
- Pluralism, reformism, and public policy .
- The relative importance of environmental and political forces in shaping public policy .
- A closer look: Causal models in policy determination .
- Summary . Bibliography

14

the policy-making process

getting inside the system 295

- The black box problem . Mass opinion and public policy .
- Elite attitudes and public policy .
- Party influence on public policy .
- Interest groups and public policy . Policy innovation .
- Summary . Bibliography

15

policy impact

finding out what happens after a law is passed 311

- Assessing the impact of public policy .
- The symbolic impact of policy .
- Evaluating ongoing programs: What governments can do to learn the impact of their own policies .
- Evaluating ongoing programs: Why governments do not know the the impact of their own policies .
- PPBS, social indicators, and other evaluative tools .
- Experimental policy research: The guaranteed income experiment
- Problems in policy experimentation .
- The limits of public policy . Bibliography