

THE CAPACITY TO GOVERN

Yehezkel Dror

Contents

Foreword by Ricardo Diez-Hochleitner, President of the Club of Rome	vii
Endorsement by Executive Committee of the Club of Rome	ix
Preface	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Glossary	xiii
Leitmotif: Redesigning Governance for Guiding Global Transformations	1
1. Mission: Improving Capacities to Govern	7
2. Foundations in Political Philosophy	11
PART ONE: THE PROBLEMATIC	33
3. Unprepared Societies and Obsolete Governance	35
4. Predicaments and Opportunities	38
5. Political Culture Obstacles	51
PART TWO: REDESIGN REQUIREMENTS	61
6. Gearing for Higher-Order Tasks	63
7. A 'Feature Model' of High-Quality Governance	70
PART THREE: THE RESOLUTION	77
8. Approaches to Redesign	79
9. Fostering Raison d'Humanité	83
10. Virtues against Vices	94
11. Empowering the People with Public Affairs Enlightenment	104
12. Refashioning Governance Elites	114
13. On Rulership	129

CONTENTS

14. Deepening Policy Reflection	137
15. Qualifying in 'Fuzzy-Gambling'	151
16. Improving the Central Minds of Government	158
17. Restructuring Governance Architecture	169
18. Governing Private Power	178
19. Making Global Governance More Resolute	188
20. Augmenting Oversight	195
21. Gearing Governance for Crises	201
22. Strengthening the Autonomy of High-Quality Government	210
Finale: Governance Redesign Pending a Quantum Leap	215
References and Further Reading	224
Index	253