

Democracy and the Challenge of Development

A Study of Politics and Military Interventions
in Bangladesh

Moudud Ahmed

Contents

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Acknowledgement                                   | ix |
| Preface   | xi |
|    |    |
| Chapter 1   |    |
| THE BANGLADESH ARMY                               | 1  |
| In Search of a Political Role                            | 1  |
| The Background of the Bangladesh Army                    | 2  |
| The First Intervention: Fall of Mujib                    | 12 |
| Second Intervention: Khaled Musharraf's AbortiveCoup | 16 |
| Sepoy Mutiny: Emergence of Ziaur Rahman                  | 20 |
| The Trial of Abu Taher                                   | 26 |
|    |    |
| Chapter 2   |    |
| THE RULE OF ZIAUR RAHMAN                          | 35 |
| Discipline in the Army                                   | 35 |
| Indian Aggression  | 36 |
| Law and Order  | 39 |
| Restoration of the Old Order and a Pro-Islamic Bias      | 41 |
| The Revival of Political Activities                      | 47 |
| The Beginning of Civilianisation                         | 49 |

Chapter 3

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY                               | 56  |
| Policies and Programmes                                      | 56  |
| Continuation of the Presidential System               | 56  |
| Citizenship: Bangalee and Bangladeshi                 | 57  |
| Secularism Replaced by Islam                          | 58  |
| 'Liberation' Replaced by 'Independence                | 59  |
| 'Socialism' Replaced by 'Economic and Social Justice' | 60  |
| Islamic Solidarity                                    | 61  |
| Local Government Bodies &amp; Women in National Life  | 62  |
| The Judiciary: Independence of the Judges             | 63  |
| The 19-Point Programme                                | 65  |
| Military Coups and Zia's Political Option                    | 66  |
| Politics of Unity  | 72  |
| The New Constitutional Framework                             | 98  |
| The Parliamentary Elections                                  | 103 |

Chapter 4

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| THE ADMINISTRATION                       | 116 |
| Consolidation of the Civil-Military Bureaucracy | 116 |
| National Pay Scale                              | 121 |
| Economic Policy                                 | 125 |
| Character of the Political Party                | 134 |
| Populist Politics                               | 137 |
| Literacy Programme                              | 139 |
| Gram Sarkar: Village Government                 | 140 |
| Village Defence Party (VDP)                     | 140 |

Chapter 5

|                                 |     |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| THE FALL OF ZIAUR RAHMAN | 144 |
| Zia as a Military Ruler         | 144 |
| Zia and the Armed Forces        | 146 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Enquiry Tribunals  | 159 |
| The White Paper and the Enquiry Commission Report | 160 |
| Trial   | 167 |
| Proceedings of the Court Martial                  | 168 |
| Application for Writ                                     | 169 |
| Involvement of Freedom-Fighter Officers                  | 169 |
| The Conspiracy Behind the Killing of Zia                 | 174 |

Chapter 6

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| PRESIDENT SATTAR AND THE ARMY           | 182 |
| The Presidential Election                      | 182 |
| The Politics of 'Balance'                      | 193 |
| Role of the Opposition Parties                 | 194 |
| Rebellion Within the Ruling Party              | 211 |
| Ershad's Support for the Presidential Election | 214 |

Chapter 7

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| PREPARATION FOR TAKE-OVER                  | 222 |
| The Military Demands a Role in the Administration | 222 |
| Ershad's Stand and the Constitutional Position    | 227 |
| Reactions to Ershad's Statement                   | 231 |

Chapter 8

|                               |     |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| THE THIRD INTERVENTION | 249 |
| Ershad Takes Over             | 249 |
| Ershad's Pledge to the Nation | 254 |
| State of the Economy          | 255 |
| Macro-Economic Policy Changes | 256 |

Chapter 9

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| MODERNISATION AND REFORMS       | 260 |
| Ershad as a Reformer                   | 260 |
| Decentralisation of the Administration | 262 |
| The Judiciary                          | 268 |
| Drug Policy                            | 279 |
| Land Reform                            | 282 |
| Chittagong Hill Tracts                 | 292 |
| Food, Floods and Foreign Relations     | 298 |

Chapter 10

|                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------|-----|
| CIVILIANISATION            | 306 |
| The Civil-Military Relationship   | 306 |
| National Politics                 | 309 |
| Results of Pledges made by Ershad | 328 |
| Fall of Ershad                    | 330 |

Chapter 11

|                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------|-----|
| THE TWO MILITARY REGIMES   | 350 |
| Zia and Ershad as Military Rulers | 350 |
| Common Features and Conclusions   | 357 |

Chapter 12

|                               |     |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| CRISIS OF DEMOCRACY    | 364 |
| Prospects and Impediments     | 364 |
| The Media                     | 374 |
| Tolerance and the Rule of Law | 375 |

|                 |     |
|-----------------|-----|
| Appendix | 381 |
|-----------------|-----|

|                             |     |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| List of Abbreviation | 387 |
|-----------------------------|-----|

|              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| Index | 389 |
|--------------|-----|