

The Challenge of A
Modern Welfare
State

(With Prognostic Views of
A Happy Future for Mankind
by 2050 A.D.)

THE FRENCH PRESIDENT

(Mr. F. Mitterrand)

"He shares your sentiments and reflections on the whole international situation."

THE FEDERAL CHANCELLOR OF GERMANY

(Mr. Helmut Kohl)

"Your statements are careful and have been taken up for due consideration ... and appreciate your works very much."

FORMER P.M. OF G.D.R.

"...what you published some 31 years ago are now the realities in Europe. ...Wish you the best of your Creative power."

THE P.M. OF CANADA

"Your comments have been noted."

THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE U.N.O.

(Mr. J. V. Perez de Cuellar)

"...Appreciate your thoughtfulness and share your views on the international situations."

K. C. BANERJEE

CONTENTS

Subjects	Pages
1. The Author's Prognostic Views & the Reunification of 2 Germanys —	1
2. Comparative Standards of Living in Advanced Democracies & Communist Countries —	19
3. The effects of the Dictatorship of the Proletariat —	25
4. Stalin's Dictatorship in Russia —	32
5. Performances of the Indian Communists —	49
6. Comparative Performances between China & India	51
7. Performances of Japan —	60
8. 'A Happy Future for Mankind' to emerge by 2050 A.D. —	94
9. Difficulties of India's Progress —	115
10. Iraqi Dictator Saddam Hossein —	120
11- Quotations of 'The Importance of the Middle East' from the Author's book of 1958 —	122
12. Gulf-War & Contradictory Attitudes of Some Powers	166
13. Prospects of Progress for India —	168
14. For a Happy Future for India & her Neighbouring Countries —	171
15. Quotations of the Author's Prognostic Views as Published in his Books Long Before the Events. 172
[(1) 'My Travels in the East'—1936
(2) 'Axis vs Allies'—1942
(3) 'The World by 1975'—1958
(4) 'India & International Politics'—1966
(5) 'The effects of International Re-alignments'— 1972
(6) 'My Travels & Impressions'—1988]
16. Opinion on the Author's Earlier Political Readings	208: