

POLITICS IN CONTEMPORARY ASIA

EAST TIMOR

THE PRICE OF FREEDOM

JOHN G TAYLOR

'Contemporary history at its finest'

JOHN PILGER

Contents

Introduction: East Timor - Troubled Path to Freedom	xi
The Santa Cruz massacre and its aftermath	xii
Indonesia in crisis	xv
From autonomy to referendum	xvii
The paramilitary campaign	xix
The United Nations	xxii
Voting for independence	xxiii
Betrayal	xxiv
Dispersal and deportation: the humanitarian crisis	xxvii
'Two weeks too late'	xxix
Sanctions	xxxii
1. Colonial Failure	1
Settlement and exchange	1
Colonial interplay	3
The structure of Timorese society	5
Reproduction and resistance	8
Pacification: the two political systems	10
Japanese invasion and occupation	12
2. East Timor and Indonesia: Political Developments from the Pacific War to the Portuguese Revolution	16
Indonesia	19
Rebellion	21
3. Changing Strategies: The Emergence of Political Parties and the Indonesian Response	25
Party formation	26
Diplomacy	29
BAKIN and its allies	30
Fretilin's programmes	32
Realism, Portuguese style	36
Coalition	38
The right to independence	41

4.	From Coalition to Coup and Independence: The Indonesian Campaign against East Timor	46
	Fretilin and its groupings: the road to Macau	46
	A coup and its allies	50
	Fretilin's administration	54
	Indonesia's border strategy	58
	Independence and invasion	62
5.	Invasion, Resistance and the International Response	68
	Military myths	72
6.	The Indonesian Occupation: 'Encirclement and Annihilation'	79
	Fretilin's administration of its areas	81
	Ideological and military campaigns	82
	'A population uprooted'	88
7.	'As Bad as Biafra': Population Resettlement and Starvation	92
	Resettlement	92
	Resistance quelled	94
8.	Military Control: Imprisonment, Killings and Human Rights Abuses	100
	Disappearances	100
	Imprisonment	103
	'Established procedures'	106
	A terrorized population	109
9.	Military Campaigns and the Indonesian Transformation of East Timor	114
	Fretilin: defeat and re-emergence	115
	Operasi Keamanan: the 'final cleansing'	117
	Aid: use and abuse	120
	Structural transformation: the military project	123
	Transmigration	124
	Military monopolies	125
	Re-education and control	127
10.	'Ascertaining the Facts': The Indonesian-Fretilin Ceasefire and the Visit of the Australian Delegation	132
	Ceasefire	135
	The delegation's visit	137
	Interception	140
	Massacre	142
	Further visits	144

11. The Development of Opposition and Indonesian Plans for the Resocialization of East Timor	149
The role of the church and the growing opposition to Indonesian rule	152
The ultimate transformation: Indonesian strategies for birth control	157
Military stalemate	160
12. In Their Best Interests: Strategies for East Timor in the International Community	168
Strategy, economics and politics	168
Monitoring and commitment	174
13. What of the Future? Scenarios for East Timor	184
Changes in Indonesia	188
Chronology of the Main Events in East Timor 1974-1999	200
Glossary	232
Bibliography	234
Index	241