

NEO KOLONIALISMA

TABLE OF CONTENTSPAGE

ABSTRACT	i
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	iv
TABLE OF CONTENTS	vi
LIST OF TABLES	x
LIST OF FIGURES	xii
LIST OF TERMS USED	xiii
CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION
Overview of the Problem	1
The Struggle for Dominance	2
The May 13 Incident	2
Past Success and Continuing Problems	4
Recent Trends	5
Objective of the Study	6
Organization and Methodology	7
CHAPTER II: CAUSES OF POLITICAL INSTABILITY
INTRODUCTION	10
POLITICAL STABILITY AS A DESIRABLE GOAL	10
CAUSES OF POLITICAL INSTABILITY	13
The Political Gap Hypothesis	14
The Economic Gap Hypothesis	15
The Frustration-Aggression Hypothesis	19
TOWARD A GENERAL THEORY OF POLITICAL INSTABILITY	21
The Meaning of Political Stability	21
The Gap-Frustration-Aggression Theory	25
Relationship Between Expectations & Fulfillment	26
The Tolerance Level	28
The Gap Analysis Model	31
Determinants of the Social Expectation Gap	40
A Framework For Political Analysis	46
STRATEGIES FOR PROMOTING POLITICAL STABILITY	47
The Role of The Government	47
Strategy I: No Intervention	49

Strategy II: Reduce Social Expectation	49
Strategy III: Maximize Social Fulfillment	50
Strategy IV: Enhance the System's Capacity	51
Problems of Choosing The Most Appropriate Strategy	52
Conclusion	55

CHAPTER III: THE MALAYSIAN DILEMMA

A PROFILE OF THE MALAYSIAN POPULATION	57
The Population Composition	57
The Malays	60
The Malaysian Chinese	74
The Kadazans	77
Ethnic Politics and Political Struggle	78
THE MALAYSIAN POLITICAL SYSTEM	83
Constitution and Government	83
Political Parties	85
Other Political Parties	92
Blunting Ethnic and Religious Polarization	95
OPERATION OF THE POLITICAL SYSTEM	97
Communication and Articulation Subsystem	98
Political Bargaining and Decision-Making Subsystem	98
Policy Conversion Subsystem	102
Policy Outcome and Monitoring	103
Responsiveness and Vulnerability of the System	104
THE MALAYSIAN DILEMMA	11C
The Economic Dilemma	110
The Political Dilemma	110

CHAPTER IV: SOLVING THE POLITICAL-ECONOMIC DILEMMA

THE MALAYSIAN DILEMMA ANALYZED	112
The Malay-Chinese Political-Economic Dilemma	112
The Borneo Dilemma	114
The Theoretical Solution	116
Dividing The Economic Pie	119
Dividing The Political Pie	123
THE COMMUNAL SOLUTIONS	125
Without Government Intervention: The DAP Approach	126
Malay Hegemony : The PMIP Approach	127
THE NEP SOLUTION	129
Goals, Objectives and Strategy of the NEP	130
Results and Impact of the NEP	141
Chinese and Bornean Perceptions of the NEP	149

CHAPTER V: THE ECONOMIC GAP

THE QUESTION OF ECONOMIC EQUALITY	154
The Economic Gaps	154
Contributing Factors	159
BUMIPUTRA UNDERDEVELOPMENT FACTORS	160
Theories of Bumiputra Underdevelopment	160
A Conceptual Model Of Bumiputra Development Patterns	181
Empirical Evidence of Bumiputra Development Patterns	191
Overcoming The Bumiputra Factor	213
The Chinese Factor	216
POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS OF THE 1990 TARGETS	219
If the Targets Are Not Achieved	219
If the Targets Are Achieved	221
Political Risks in the 1990s	223

CHAPTER VI: THE POLITICAL GAP

THE QUESTION OF POLITICAL EQUALITY	225
The Political Gap	225
Rationale For the Inequality	228
The Kadazan Political Aspiration	236
NARROWING THE POLITICAL GAP	245
The Cultural Factor	245
The Loyalty Question	246
The Economic Factor	247
IMPLICATIONS OF THE POLITICAL GAP	248

CHAPTER VII: THE SOCIO-CULTURAL GAP

THE SOCIOCULTURAL GAP	251
Social Heterogeneity	252
Intercultural Education	254
Interracial Marriage	256
Indigenization of Names	257
ISLAMIZATION AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM	257
A MULTI-LINGUAL SOCIETY AND THE LANGUAGE ISSUE	262

CHAPTER VIII: CAPACITY OF THE POLITICAL SYSTEM

INTRODUCTION	267
THE ECONOMIC CAPACITY	267
Poor Growth	268
Declining Export Revenues and Rising Deficits	268
Rising Debts and Investment Cutbacks	269
Outputs in Manufacturing and Industrial Sector	270
Development Implications	271
THE INSTITUTIONAL CAPACITY	275
The Legislative Capacity	275
Political Participation & Expression	276
Political Representation	279
Legislative Decision-Making	281
The Executive Capacity	283
Political Representation	283
Political Bargaining & Rules of the Game	284
Administrative Capacity & Policy Implementation	286
The Judicial Capacity	289
CONSTRAINTS ON THE SYSTEM
The Style of Political Mobilization	292
Regional Constraint	292
Religion as a Constraint	294
Conclusion	296
CHAPTER IX: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS	297
Potential Problems	298
Conditions for Long-term Stability	302
The System's Capacity	311
BIBLIOGRAPHY	314

LIST OF TABLES

- Table 2.1 : Riots, Armed Attacks, Protest Demonstrations and Government Sanctions (1956-1967)
  - 2.1 : Per Capita GNP and Violent Conflicts 1956-1965
  - 2.3 : Literacy and Stability
  - 3.1 : A Profile of the Malaysian Population
  - 3.2 : Estimated Population Composition of Sabah, 1980
  - 3.3 : Distribution of Income Within Major Ethnic Groups 1957/8-1970.
  - 3.4 : Ownership of Share Capital of Limited Companies in West Malaysia, 1969
  - 4.1 : Credit Assistance 1971 and 1980 (Peninsula Malaysia)
  - 4.2 : Employment By Race and Sector, Peninsular Malaysia, 1990
  - 4.3 : Share of Educational Opportunities in Malaysian Universities (1970-1977), by Race
  - 4.4 : Ownership and Control of the Corporate Sector, 1990
  - 4.5 : Employment Restructuring In Malaysia: Targets and Actual Performance, 1970-80
  - 4.6 : Mean and Median Incomes, 1970-79 ($ per household per month) in Peninsula Malaysia
  - 4.7 : Percentage of Households in Sabah Below the Planning Poverty Line in 1978
  - 5.1 : The Trend of Fulfillment of the Ownership Targets
  - 5.2 : Percentage Distribution of Household Heads by
  - 5.3 : Major Activity Status and Sector, Sabah, 1982
  - 5.3 : Composition of Sample (1982)
  - 5.4 : Importance of Traditional Customs and Culture
  - 5.5 : Whether Traditional Customs Retard Development

- 5.6 : Relation Between Income and Environment
- 5.7 : Relation Between Income and Educational Level of Bumiputra
- 5.8 : Relation Between Educational Level and Savings Behaviour
- 5.9 : Relation Between Educational Level and Occupation
- 5.10: Relation Between Race and Employment Behaviour
- 5.11: Why Bumiputra Are Economically Underdeveloped
- 5.12: Why the Chinese Are Economically More Successful Than the Bumiputra
- 8.1 : Allocation of Seats Under the Alliance Party
- 8.2 : Political Representation and Voting Strength in Parliament
- 8.3 : Political Representation in The Executive Process—The Cabinet (1981)

LIST OF FIGURES

- Figure 2.1 : Relation Between Expectation and Fulfillment
- 2.2 : Model Predicting Political Instability
- 3.1 : The Malaysian Political Organs and Process
- 3.2 : Operation of the Malaysian Political Sysytem
- 4.1 : The Malay-Chinese Dilemma
- 4.2 : The Borneo Dilemma
- 4.3 : Equality and Distribution through Growth and Opportunities
- 4.4 : Growth Versus Equity Strategy
- 5.1 : Marginal Output Versus Total Output in Village Production
- 5.2 : A Conceptual Model of Bumiputra Development Patterns
- 5.3 : Comparison Between the 1969 and 1990 Political Instability Risks