The book cover features a vibrant, multi-colored background transitioning from blue at the top to yellow and red at the bottom. In the center, the Petronas Towers are depicted in a stylized, metallic, and somewhat abstract manner. To the right, a large, semi-transparent portrait of a man with glasses and a mustache, likely a Malaysian politician, is visible. In the foreground, two globes with red and white grid lines are shown, one larger than the other. The overall design is modern and thematic, reflecting the book's focus on globalization and politics in Malaysia.
