

B1

HANGING SOUTHERN AFRICA

SOUTH AFRICA:

THE SANCTIONS REPORT

Prepared for the COMMONWEALTH COMMITTEE of FOREIGN MINISTERS on SOUTHERN AFRICA

Foreword by SHRIDATH RAMPHAL

CONTENTS

List of Tables	vii
Foreword by Shridath Ramphal, Commonwealth Secretary-General	ix
PART I SANCTIONS ARE ESSENTIAL FOR NEGOTIATIONS
1 Introduction	3
2 How Sanctions Work	10
3 Partial Sanctions: a Partial Success	15
4 Why is South Africa the Exception?	25
PART II CURRENT SANCTIONS: IMPACT AND SHORTCOMINGS
5 The Sanctions Juggernaut	37
6 Sales to South Africa	42
7 Purchases from South Africa	51
8 Other Government Measures	57
9 Disinvestment	63
10 People's Sanctions	68
PART III FRUSTRATING SANCTIONS
11 Changing Patterns of Trade	75
12 Encouraging South African Trade	80
13 Blocking and Bypassing Sanctions	84
14 The Role of South African-owned Companies	89
PART IV VULNERABILITY AND SANCTIONS POTENTIAL
15 Trade Vulnerability	95

16	Technology and Skills	101
17	How Much Pressure is Needed?	108

PART V POSSIBLE FURTHER ACTION

18	A Strategy for Action	123
19	Targeting Pretoria's Trade	131
20	Arms and Oil	140
21	Cars and Computers	148
22	Enforcement	154
23	Influencing Market Forces	160

PART VI SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

24	Proposed Actions	167
25	Sanctions are a Life-and-death Issue	178

APPENDICES

1	The Expert Study and Its Terms of Reference	185
2	The Commonwealth Accord on Southern Africa	191
3	Commonwealth Heads of Government Review Communiqué	195
4	Excerpts from the Okanagan Statement and Programme of Action on Southern Africa	200
5	Excerpts from the Concluding Statement of the CFMSA	202
6	The CFMSA Statement on the Arms Embargo Against South Africa	205
7	Trade Statistics	208
	Notes and References	259
	Index	267

TABLES

1	Reduction in trade by nine sanctions-imposing countries	39
2	Examples of variations in the oil embargo	48
3	Summary of bans on some South African goods	52
4	Variations in bans on iron and steel imports	53
5	Shifting trade patterns: 1987 compared with 1983-5 average	76
6	Trends in regional shares of total trade with South Africa	77
7	Sanctions among countries involved in uranium processing	97
8	Portion of 1987 imports from South Africa that would be affected by various factors	116
9	Commodities exported in bulk by South Africa	132

Appendix 7

1	Recent changes in trade of US$50 million or more: 1987 compared with 1983-5 average	211
2	Imposing and undermining sanctions: trade trends 1983-7 (value)	212
3	Imposing and undermining sanctions: trade trends 1983-7 (%)	213
4	Imports from South Africa by country (US$ million)	214
5	Imports from South Africa by country (SDR million)	215
6	Imports from South Africa by country, excluding precious minerals (US$ million)	216
7	Imports from South Africa by country, excluding precious minerals (SDR million)	217
8	Imports from South Africa by commodity group, 1987	218
9	Imports from South Africa by commodity group: 1987 compared with 1983-5 average and 1986	220
10	Imports from South Africa by commodity group and country	221

11	Imports from South Africa by country and commodity group	228
12	Exports to South Africa by country (US$ million)	235
13	Exports to South Africa by country (SDR million)	236
14	Exports to South Africa by commodity group, 1987	237
15	Exports to South Africa by commodity group: 1987 compared with 1983-5 average and 1986	239
16	Exports to South Africa by commodity group and country	240
17	Exports to South Africa by country and commodity group	245
18	Countries ranked by percentage change in trade with South Africa: first six months of 1988 compared with first six months of 1987	252
19	Trade with South Africa: first six months of 1988 compared with first six months of 1987 (US$ million)	254
20	Trade with South Africa: first six months of 1988 compared with first six months of 1987 (SDR million)	255
21	Trade with South Africa: first nine months of 1988 compared with first nine months of 1987	256
22	Japan, West Germany and gold, 1987 and 1988	257