

PHILIPPE LASSERRE AND HELLMUT SCHÜTTE

Strategies for Asia Pacific

BEYOND THE CRISIS

REVISED AND UPDATED PAPERBACK EDITION

MACMILLAN Business

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	xi
List of Abbreviations	xv
1 The Strategic Importance of Asia Pacific	1
Asia Pacific as a region	1
From the Far East to Asia Pacific	1
Intra-regional cooperation	4
Defining sub-regions	6
Links with the outside world	7
The role of Asia Pacific in the world economy	10
Economic size compared	10
Purchasing power parities	13
Growth as a driver	16
The Asian crisis	19
The unravelling of the miracle	19
The immediate impact and consequences	21
Asia Pacific beyond the crisis	23
2 Formulating Strategies for Asia Pacific	28
A strategic framework for Asia Pacific	28
Ambition for Asia Pacific	29
The importance of Asia Pacific as a market	29
The importance of Asia Pacific as a resource base	32
The importance of Asia Pacific as a source of learning	34
Positioning in Asia Pacific	35
Resources-based versus market-based strategies	35
Choice of countries	36
Choice of entry mode and pathway to strategic development	37
Choice of business segments and competitive approach	39
Orientation: regional strategy versus country-by-country strategy	40
Creating capabilities through investments in resources, assets and competences	41

Development of resources	43
Building assets	44
Creating competences	45
Organisational capabilities	47
How does the financial crisis affect Asia Pacific strategies?	49
3 Asia as a Market	52
Japan	53
Open market, closed society	53
Commitment and competition	54
Buyer–supplier relationships	57
Consumer behaviour	58
Market trends	60
ASEANIEs	62
Demographic changes	62
Consumer segmentation	64
The distribution revolution	68
Industrial markets	70
China	74
The shift from state planning to market forces	74
Stratification of the consumer	75
Industrial markets	79
Marketing instruments	80
4 The Players	83
Japanese Kaisha	84
Devoted employees and patient capital	84
Economies of scale, scope and speed	86
Keiretsu	89
Mini-Japans and sogo shosha abroad	94
Kaizen instead of restructuring	95
Korean chaebol	97
Characteristics	97
Managerial culture	100
The Korean chaebol in Asia	101
The Overseas Chinese conglomerates	101
Historical origins	102
Characteristics of the Chinese family business	105
Strategic development	107
The Taiwanese firm: a breed apart?	109
Regional activities of Overseas Chinese firms	110

The other players	111
The former colonial trading houses	111
State-owned enterprises	112
Chinese state-owned enterprises	113
The Asian crisis and the future of the Asian firm	114
5 Asian Business Logic	117
The role of government	117
Development context	118
Consensus towards growth	118
Business-government relationships	119
Pro-business attitudes of the bureaucracy	120
Governments in Asia: pragmatism and flexibility	121
Development orientations	121
Direct government participation	124
The role of relationships	125
Family and blood ties	126
Social, school and club ties	127
Corruption	129
Cultures and business in the Asia Pacific region	130
The Asian concept of social organisation	130
The pervasiveness of Confucian ethics	132
Competitive and business logic	132
Goal setting	133
Competitive behaviour	134
Decision-making	136
The Asian business context: an overview	137
The financial crisis of 1997 and Asian business logic	138
6 Competing	141
Strategic and market intelligence	141
Reliability and accessibility of information	141
Sources of information	143
Market research in Asia	144
Entry strategies	146
Selecting and changing entry modes	146
Distribution agreements	148
Choice of location	153
Local content requirements	156
Critical mass and optimism traps	157
Acquisitions	160
The decision-making process	162

The integration process	166
The challenges of symbiotic acquisitions in Asia	170
Competitive moves	171
First mover advantage	171
Late entry strategies	173
Marketing across the region	174
Countering Japanese competitors	176
7 Cooperating in Country-Based Partnerships	180
Partnerships in Asia	180
Country-based partnerships	182
Rationale for partnering	182
Partner selection	186
Negotiating partnership agreements	199
Managing partnerships	201
Organisational design	202
Staffing	203
Control	204
Communication	205
Joint venture decay and failure	206
A special case: joint venturing in China	210
The political and legal context	210
Entering a joint venture	211
Creating and managing the fit	212
Early entrants' advantage	213
8 Cooperating in Global Partnerships	216
The reach of global partnerships	216
Global partnerships and strategic alliances	216
Japanese, Korean and Taiwanese partners	218
Competitive collaboration and networks	219
Success and failure of global partnerships	220
Western perceptions	220
Assessment and measurement of success and failure	221
Structural differences between partners	222
Trading of contributions	222
Asymmetric strategies	225
Managerial behaviour and learning	228
Organisational requirements	230
Setting up a global partnership	230
Organisational learning	233
Provisions for exit	235

9 Organising	238
Organisational vicious circles	238
Organisational facilitators in Asia Pacific	240
Regional legitimisation	241
Regional drive	242
Adaptation versus transformation	243
Commitment through people	243
Informal networking	245
The effect of globalisation on Asian operations	246
Strategy formulation and budgeting	248
Evaluation processes	249
Learning processes	249
Regional headquarters	250
The role of regional headquarters	251
The organisation of regional headquarters	251
Boundaries and location	263
Regional headquarters as change agents	267
10 Managing Human Resources	269
Recruiting local staff	269
Scarcity	269
Reluctance to work for foreign firms	273
Retaining local staff	274
Fairness	275
Rewards	275
Sense of belonging	276
Long-term view	276
Expatriate management	278
Common expatriate problems: motivation and performance	278
Expatriate skills	280
Cultural assimilation	282
Cultural differentiation and integration	282
11 The Future of the Asia Pacific Region	290
Growth versus development	290
Growth, development and internal stability	292
External stability and sources of conflict	294
The move towards Asianisation	298
Learning about and learning from Asia Pacific	302
References	304
Index	314