

CAN

JAPAN

COMPETE

MICHAEL E. PORTER

HIROTAKA TAKEUCHI

AND MARIKO SAKAKIBARA

2

CONTENTS

---

List of Figures		vii
List of Tables		viii
Preface		ix
Introduction		xiii
Chapter 1	The Japanese Model of Competitiveness	1
	Early Warning Signs	3
	Challenging the Conventional Wisdom	14
	The Structure of this Study	15
Chapter 2	Challenging the Japanese Government Model	18
	The Roots of the Japanese Government Model	19
	Elements of the Government Model	21
	The Role of Government in Japan's Competitive Successes	29
	The Role of Government in Japan's Failures	32
	Testing the Japanese Government Model	36
	Summary	44
	Appendix A: How the Case Studies were Developed	66
	Appendix B: Case Studies of the Role of Cartels in Competitive Industries	66
Chapter 3	Rethinking Japanese Management	69
	The Japanese Corporate Model	69
	Competing on Operational Effectiveness	78
	Competing Without Strategy	82
	Competing on Strategy	89
	Japanese Exceptions that Prove the Rule	91
	Summary	98
Chapter 4	What Does Explain Japanese Competitiveness?	100
	Prosperity and Productivity	100
	Competitiveness and the Japanese Business Environment	103
	Statistical Findings on Japanese Competitiveness	112
	The Role of Government in Competitiveness	116
	Conclusion	118

Chapter 5	How Japan Can Move Forward: The Agenda for Government	138
	Priorities for Policy Makers	138
	Continuing What Works	139
	The New Economic Policy Agenda	140
	A New Role for the Government	158
	Utilizing Japan's Human Potential	159
	Conclusion	160
Chapter 6	Transforming the Japanese Company	162
	The New Corporate Agenda	162
	The New Japanese Company	175
	Conclusion	179
Chapter 7	Can Japan Compete?	181
	Can Japan Change?	182
	Catalysts for Change	184
	The Need for a New Japanese Model	187
	References	191
	Index	199

---

1-1	Return on assets for Japanese manufacturing companies relative to US companies	3
1-2	Market sector physical capital productivity, 1970-93	4
1-3	Real Japanese GDP growth rate, 1956-98	8
1-4	Japanese share of world exports, 1960-97	9
2-1	The Japanese government model	22
2-2	Official discount rate, Japan and the United States (1970-99)	27
2-3	Japanese cartels in force, 1952-94	37
2-4	Number of R&D consortia started each year, 1959-92	41
3-1	The Japanese corporate model	70
3-2	Japanese companies shifted the productivity frontier	79
4-1	The microeconomic business environment	103
4-2	Domestic market share fluctuations, selected competitive industries	113
4-3	Domestic market fluctuations, selected uncompetitive industries	114

LIST OF TABLES

1-1	Comparative dollar price levels of selected services and goods, 1993	6
1-2	GNP per capita 1998, unadjusted and adjusted for purchasing power parity, selected countries	7
1-3	Change in world export share since the pre-1990 peak (number of SITC industries)	11
1-4	Emerging Japanese export industries in the 1990s	13-14
2-1	Competitive Japanese industries studied	28
2-2	The role of government in competitive Japanese industries	45-56
2-3	Japanese failure cases	31
2-4	The role of government in uncompetitive Japanese industries	57-65
2-5	Incidence of Japanese cartels by broad sector	38
2-6	Number of Japanese government-sponsored R&D consortia by broad sector	42
3-1	Return on sales of leading tire manufacturers, 1994-98 (%)	76
3-2	Ranking of world semiconductor companies in terms of sales, revenue, selected years	83
3-3	Symmetric strategies of Japanese semiconductor manufacturers	84
3-4	Foreign brands licensed by C. Itoh	87
4-1	Diamond conditions in uncompetitive Japanese industries	119-125
4-2	Diamond conditions in competitive Japanese industries	126-137
4-3	Estimated number of Japanese rivals in selected industries	111
4-4	Quality of the Japanese business environment relative to other nations, adjusted for per capita income (1999 data)	115
5-1	New company formation as a percentage of total companies	156
6-1	Number of keiretsu companies by industry, 1993	166
6-2	Companies with high percentage of non-Japanese investors, 1999	171