

Inspired by Tomorrow

Zurich – 125 years
History and Vision of a
Global Corporation

Karl Lüönd

Editions NZZ

Table of Contents

11	Introduction
13	On Heroism, Imagination and Prudence; or, Only He Who Has Nothing to Lose Needs No Insurance	"Somehow Comforted..." Tabloids from the Zwingli Era
27	On Lengths of Silk and Tracks of Iron: Zurich's Route to the Present	The Law of Large Numbers Necessity, the Mother of Insurance
49	Flying Blind to a New Destination: The First Years	Profiles of the Founders The Disappearing Charter Bismarck's Social Concept
69	Give, Take, Fight: Zurich in the Belle Epoque	Devouring Earth Did the Titanic Have a Sister Ship? The First Swiss Military Insurance The Father of Swiss Social Security The Case of Johann Hirter
93	Outwitting Fate; or, The Learning Enterprise	When Gasoline Still Came from the Drugstore Safe, but Torn: Switzerland in World War I Compensation from America "Everyone Must Make Sacrifices!" The Nation's Scapegoats
117	From Discipline to Design: People Shape the System	Banks and Insurance Companies: The Not-So-Trivial Difference Insurance Concepts Strengthened the Workers' Movement Business Sense and Ethics in Claims Handling Buying is Believing I Was There!
145	Approaching a Quantum Leap: A Conglomerate Becomes a Multinational	Daily Life in Times of War Between Accommodation and Resistance When Roosevelt Sold Insurance Times of Testing and Temptation
175	Crash Landing in London: Crisis Brings Opportunity	How Do I Insure a Spaceship? The Case of Lloyd's
195	Risks, Markets, Strategies: Moving on into New Dimensions	The Paradoxical Concept of Certainty Getting the People Moving Cyclones, Earthquakes, Floods

219	Insurance Beyond Insurance: Conjectures about the Future	Megatrends at the Millennium Change Where the Voyage is Going
247	Interview with Rolf Hüppi: Changing Wheels on a Vehicle in Motion	Business Growth of the Zurich Group, 1992–1996
254	Appendix
	Milestones in the History of Zurich
	Honorary Chairmen and Chairmen of the Board of Directors of Zurich Insurance Company
	Members of the Board of Directors of Zurich Insurance Company
	The Management of the Zurich Group
	Index
	Bibliography
	List of Illustrations	