

THE ISLAMIC GOLD
DINAR

Ahamed Kameel Mydin Meera

04
E

PELANDUK

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Preface xi

Chapter 1 — Introduction 1

Inflation and Business Cycles—Part of Life? 3

Money—At the Root of the Problem? 5

Chapter 2 — Problems in the Current Monetary System 9

Implications of the Fiat Money Interest-based Financial System—The Malaysian Example 9

Fiat Money, Fractional Reserve Banking and Money Creation 10

Interest Rates and Growth in Money Supply 13

Credit Cards and Growth in Money Supply 15

Money Supply, the Real Sector and the Aggregate Price Level 18

Period 1: Money Creation and the Economic Cycle 23

Period 2: Period of Excess Money Supply, Cheap Funds and Leveraging 27

Period 3: Period of Money Supply Contraction 29

Period 4: Transfer of Crisis from the Financial Sector to the Real Sector 33

Period 5: Reversal of the Recession Cycle 34

The Policy of Squeezing Interest Rates and Capital Controls 38

Economic Recovery and the Cycle Again! 39

Islamic Banks, Money Creation and the Law of One Price 41

Currency Speculators 44

Currency Speculation and Arbitrage 45

Appendix to Chapter 2: An Explanation of the Variables in the Equation of Exchange 52

Chapter 3 — Socio-Economic Effects of Money Creation 57

Inflation and Interest Rates, the Premise for Socio-Economic Effects 57

Disparity in Income Distribution and Creation of Poverty 59

The Need to Control Prices of Basic Necessities 61

Effects on Housing 63

Prices of Controlled Goods Grow Gradual 65

Effects of Price Control on Agriculture 68

Effects on Society 68

Effects on the Environment 70

Money Creation and Sovereignty 71

Chapter 4 — The Islamic Gold Dinar System 75

The Gold Standard 75

The Islamic Gold Dinar 78

Implications of the Islamic Gold Dinar System 79

Smooth Transition through Information Technology 88

The Modus Operandi of an Islamic Gold Dinar System 90

Some Common Objections to the Islamic Gold Dinar System 95

Future Prospects and Challenges 97

Some Limitations of the Islamic Gold Dinar System 99

Other Issues 99

Chapter 5 — Conclusion 101

Appendix — A Primer on Money and Economic Development 103

Money and Its Functions 103

Financial Intermediaries and Economic Development 107

Bibliography 111

Index 115