

Globalization and the South

Some Critical Issues

Martin Khor

TWN

Third World Network

37.1
HO

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	i
I. THE GLOBALIZATION PROCESS	1
A. The liberalization of trade, finance and investment	1
B. The globalization of policy-making	4
C. Rising inequality and the effects of globalization	9
D. Weaknesses of the South in facing the globalization challenge	13
II. KEY ISSUES IN TRADE	17
A. General	17
B. Commodity prices and terms of trade	18
C. Trade liberalization	22
D. The WTO and the multilateral trading system	27
1. General	27
2. Lack of realization of anticipated benefits for developing countries from the Uruguay Round	29
3. "Implementation problems" faced by developing countries from the Uruguay Round	31
4. Pressure for new issues in WTO	38
5. General proposals	39
III. KEY ISSUES IN FINANCE	42
A. Financial liberalization	42
B. Volatility and negative effects of short-term capital flows	43
C. Inappropriate response to debt crises and financial crises	46
D. Lack of mechanism for debtor-creditor burden-sharing	49

E.	Lack of transparency and regulation of international financial markets	50
F.	Proposals	51
	1. International-level proposals	51
	2. National-level proposals	60
IV.	ISSUES IN INVESTMENT LIBERALIZATION	69
A.	Introduction	69
B.	The benefits and risks of foreign investment	71
C.	Regulation of and policy options on FDI	80
	1. Regulations on entry and establishment	80
	2. Policies favouring local firms and domestic economy	81
	3. Measures to manage the balance of payments	82
D.	Critique of attempts at international investment agreements	83
E.	An alternative approach	85
F.	Proposals for appropriate management of foreign investment	89
	1. Summary of conclusions	89
	2. National-level policies and actions	91
	3. International-level policies and actions	95
V.	GENERAL CONCLUSIONS AND PROPOSALS	98
A.	Balancing opportunities and problems resulting from globalization	98
B.	The need for South-South policy coordination among developing countries	100
C.	The need for appropriate and democratic global governance	101
D.	Rebalancing the roles of State and market	104
E.	The search for appropriate development strategies	105
	REFERENCES	107