

MALAYSIA'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY

POLICY REFORMS FOR ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

RAMON V. NAVARATNAM

PELANDUK

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements 7

Preface 9

1. Resolutions for Economic Recovery 11
2. More Meaningful Independence 27
3. Hastening Economic Recovery 43
4. Assurances for Economic Recovery 57
5. The Changing Tunes
of the Foreign Media 69
6. Economic Recovery Takes Time to Seep Down 81
7. Are We Giving Top Priority to Raising Productivity? 89
8. Albright Can Do Without Double Talk to Improve US' 'Ugly American' Image 99
9. Economic Success the Best Way to Prove Critics Wrong 103
10. US Business Views on Malaysia 109
11. Budget Recommendations for a More Resilient Economy 115

12. Budget 2000:
A Rare, Proactive Budget 121
13. A Better Asia Tomorrow 127
14. The New Malaysian Government's Challenges 135
15. Hypocrisy of Some Developed Nations
Causes WTO Talks in Seattle to Fail 145
16. Changing Policy Direction
by New Cabinet 151
17. Too Few Changes After the
1999 General Elections 157
18. Adjusting to Change
for the 21st Century 169
19. Trade Prospects in Malaysia
After the Asian Financial Crisis:
The Australian Businessmen's Views 173
20. A New National Unity Policy:
Modifying Bumiputera Policy to Meet Challenges of Globalisation 179
21. Globalisation and the
"New Malaysian Dilemma" 185
22. Malaysia's Economic Recovery
Can No Longer Be Disputed 193
23. To Review or Not to Review
the Currency Peg? 201
24. More Democratic Economic
Debate Needed 209
25. What We Need to do to Sustain
Economic Recovery 219

Suggested Reading 227

Index 233