

Malaysia's Economic Sustainability

Confronting New Challenges
Amidst Global Realities

RAMON V. NAVARATNAM

9

PELANDUK

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements 9

Preface 11

1. Providing more priority for the poor 15
2. We need to be more competitive 25
3. Shoring up emerging economic weaknesses 31
4. The weakening euro and the hidden hand of Washington at work 37
5. The DPM's five guiding principles 41
6. Budget 2001: Good but fell short of expectations 49
7. Liberalising faster to become more competitive 55
8. Resolutions to overcome challenges in 2001 65
9. Bumiputera contractors' setback also hits non-bumiputeras 75
10. Is US money politics okay? 79
11. Malaysia ranked second in Asia in globalisation efforts 83
12. Proposals to sustain Malaysia's economic recovery 87
13. What's hampering the Malaysian economy? 95
14. Fuming over the United States's brand of democracy 113
15. The Bilateral Swap Arrangement (BSA) 117
16. Enhancing racial unity in schools and universities 123

17. How optimistic can we be about the economy in mid-2001? 127
18. The Third Outline Perspective Plan (2001-2010) 133
19. Good governance 139
20. Balance in business at UMNO Supreme Council Meeting 153
21. Initiatives to soften impact of economic slowdown 159
22. Kudos to the Cabinet's no-quota decision 173
23. Policy changes for effectiveness 177
24. Dr Mahathir Mohamad's 20 years as prime minister of Malaysia 181
25. G8 leaders must learn to listen to their people 185
26. Changing budget strategy and direction 189
27. One race, one nation: New approaches 197
28. Can we develop a Malaysian brand? 203
29. Perking up academic standard through radical action 211
30. Avoiding a recession and ensuring economic sustainability 215
31. Dealing with the roots of terrorism 219
32. Budget 2002: The need to face up to global realities 225
33. Budget 2002: Sound but not aggressive enough 231
34. Global economy takes a beating 237

Suggested Reading 245

Index 249