

POVERTY ERADICATION AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT THROUGH TOURISM

An Action Plan for India

Subhash Goyal

Foreword by

Sir Richard Branson

Chairman, Virgin Atlantic Airways

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	5-6
Foreword by Sir Richard Branson	7-9
Preface	11-13
Chapter 1	15-23
Challenges For India In The New Millennium
■ Action Not Slogans
■ Reforms Must Address Employment Issues
■ Education Sans Employment Not Working
■ Change Plan Strategy
■ Examples For India To Follow
■ Best Return On Investment
■ Tourism Stops Migration To Cities
■ Tourism In The New Millennium
■ Shortest gestation period
■ Recipe for fast track growth
Chapter 2	25-30
Over Fifty Years of Inaction
■ First To Start - How Have We Been Left Behind?
■ Tourist Numbers Up, But Our Share Is Down
■ Lessons From East Asian Countries
■ Where Did We Go Wrong ?
Chapter 3	31-35
The Indian Scene
■ Only Schemes And Plans - Hardly Any Results
■ Daunting Challenges
■ What Is The Solution?
Chapter 4	36-42
Importance Of Tourism In The Indian Economy
■ Impact Of Tourism On Other Industries
■ Tourism Promotes Rural Growth
■ Other Benefits Of Tourism
■ Largest Net Foreign Exchange Earner
■ Investment Booster

Chapter 5

43-56

World Tourism Opportunity - Can India Afford To Be Left Behind?

- Southeast Asian Scenario
- IATO Initiative To Unite The Industry
- WTTC India Tourism Initiative
- Priority Areas
- Proposals For Action Under Priority Areas

CHAPTER 6

57-72

Integrated Infrastructure Vital For Tourism Growth

- Improve Airports Infrastructure And Services
 - Shabby Entry Points
 - Rude And Biased Officials
 - Poor State of Duty Free Shops
- Need For More International Flights And Airports
- Make The Airports The Commercial Hub
- Airports As Centres Of Development
- Make Direct Access Possible
- Raise International Seat Capacity
- Connect Remote Areas
- Utilise Full Railway Potential
- Improve Roads And Remove Bottlenecks
- Rivers And Inland Waterways
- Improve Communications
- Hotel Rooms Should Double
- Control Slums And Develop Airports In Rural Areas
- Develop Human Resource
- One Window Clearance

Chapter 7

73-85

Role Of Civil Aviation And Tourism

- Latest Trends
- Policies For Developing Countries
- Lessons From Other Countries
- Protectionism Hinders Development
- Need For Change In Mindsets
- IATO And Other Bodies Stress On Implementation
- Traffic Projections
- Imperatives For Indian Aviation

- Privatised And Merge Air India And Indian Airlines
- Domestic Aviation Policy
- Inadequate Airport Infrastructure

Chapter 8

86-97

Marketing Indian Tourism

- SWOT Analysis
- India - The Greatest Show
- No Orcestrated Effort
- Kerala, Goa And Rajasthan Are Shining Examples
- Niche Marketing
- Missions Abroad Must Shoulder Responsibility
- Connect India With The Rest Of The World
- International Airlines And Hotel Chains
- PIO's And NRI's Potential Untapped
- Internet As A Marketing Tool

Chapter 9

98-111

Action Plan For India

- Commitment
- Coordination
- Communication
- Clearances
- Continuity
- Civil Aviation
- Concessions
- Cleanliness
- Contingency Plans
- Community Involvement

Annexures

114-229

Annexure 1 (Abridged Version)

- Tourism Policy, 1982
- Mohd. Yunus Committee On Tourism, 1988
- National Action Plan For Tourism, 1992
- National Strategy For Development of Tourism, 1996

Annexure 2

- Draft Tourism Policy, 1997

Annexure 3

- Draft Civil Aviation Policy, 2000

Annexure 4

- FICCI's Suggestions
- ASSOCHAM's Recommendations

Annexure 5

- XI IATO Convention (Delhi) ,1995
- Inaugural Address by Prime Minister
Shri P.V.Narasimha Rao
- Welcome address by Shri Subhash Goyal
- IATO Resolutions And Action Plans

Annexure 6

- XII IATO Convention (Lucknow), 1996

Annexure 7

- XIII IATO Convention (Hyderabad), 1997
- Action Plan for Andhra Pradesh

Annexure 8

- XIV IATO Convention (Delhi), 1998

Annexure 9

- XV IATO Convention (Jaipur), 1999

Annexure 10

- XVI IATO Convention (Delhi), 2000

Annexure 11

- The WTO Global Code Of Ethics For Tourism