

A WORLD IN NEED OF LEADERSHIP: TOMORROW'S UNITED NATIONS

- A FRESH APPRAISAL -

Embargoed until August 30, 1996

1.233

URQ

Brian Urquhart and Erskine Childers

GRANGER

► Contents

PREFACE 7

CHAPTER ONE: UNITED NATIONS LEADERSHIP

- I. INTRODUCTION 9
- II. THE INTERNATIONAL AGENDA FOR THE 1990s 12
- III. THE SECRETARY-GENERAL 16
 - Historical background* 16
 - What do Governments want?* 18
 - What do the people want?* 19
 - Problems of coherence and coordination in the UN system* 20
 - The scope of the job and qualities needed* 22
- IV. THE SELECTION PROCESS 1945-1991 26
 - Who appoints?* 26
 - Who starts the process?* 27
 - The role of the veto* 28
 - The role of the General Assembly* 28
 - Campaigning* 29
 - Term of office* 29
 - The nature of the process* 30
 - Regional rotation* 31
 - '... the equal rights of men and women'* 31
 - Candidates from Permanent Members* 31
 - A diplomatic yet democratic selection?* 32
 - An improved process* 33
- V. CONCLUSIONS 35

CHAPTER TWO: A SYSTEM IN NEED OF LEADERSHIP

- I. INTRODUCTION 37
- II. THE SALIENT PROBLEMS 38
 - Selection in the Specialized Agencies* 38
 - Nationalities* 39
 - The team that never was* 43
 - Governance of the system as system* 45
 - Intergovernmental selection machinery* 45
 - A vicious circle* 47
- III. SCREENING 48
 - Screening in the UN-proper* 48
 - Screening in the Agencies* 48
 - The range of screening* 49
 - Transparency* 49
 - Change in WHO* 49

IV.	WHAT IS A NOMINATION?	51
	Multi-government endorsement?	51
V.	TERMS OF OFFICE	52
	The case for renewability	52
	The case against renewability	52
	Abuses in elections	54
	The danger of error	55
	The incumbent's advantages	56
	The North-South factor	56
	Other political factors	57
	Diplomatic delicacy	58
	Involvement of secretariat staff	58
	Inhibitions favouring re-eligibility	58
	The balance sheet	59
	Length of a single term	60
	Removal from office	61
VI.	FINDING THE BEST	62
	Information about vacancies	62
	Image factors	63
VII.	SEARCHING	65
	Proper timetables	65
	A system timetable?	66
	Qualities and qualifications	67
	Age criteria	67
	Gender criteria	69
	Discussing the next leadership	69
	The search process	70
	Search committees: elected heads	71
	The nature of the search	72
	Judicial examples	73
	Search systems for appointed heads	73
	Present practice	74
	Improvements	75
	National monopoly	76
VIII.	EXAMINING THE CANDIDATES	77
IX.	CAMPAIGNING FOR OFFICES	79
	Campaigning from the outside	79
	Civil servant candidates	80
X.	APPOINTMENTS TO THE SENIOR ECHELON	82
	The cascade effect	83
	Improvements	83

CHAPTER THREE: CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

- I. CONCLUSIONS 85
- II. RECOMMENDATIONS 87
 - Leadership policy for the UN system* 87
 - A UN System Consultative Board* 87
 - Terms of office* 87
 - Calendar of appointments* 87
 - Search policy* 88
 - Proper timetables* 88
 - Vacancy information* 88
 - Nominations* 88
 - Rules of candidature* 89
 - Search preparation* 89
 - Criteria* 90
 - Search procedure* 90
 - The Secretary-Generalship* 91
 - Other organizations* 92
 - Organization for effective leadership* 93

Glossary 97

Index 99

Authors and Sponsors 103

► Diagrams and Tables

Diagram

United Nations System 6

Tables

1. Nationalities of UN system heads, 1946-1996 39
2. Regional sources of leaders, pre- and post-decolonization and as of 1996 40
3. Regional sources of leadership of major organizations, 1946-1996 41
4. Leadership elections/appointments from 1994 to 2003 44
5. Elected executive head posts: selection procedure 46
6. Age of UN system executive heads 68
7. Appointed executive head posts: selection procedure 74
8. Past and present executive heads of the UN system 93