

C

V.V. CHITALEY MEMORIAL
LECTURES:

MALAYSIA
AND INDIA -
SHARED
EXPERIENCES
IN THE LAW

By Tun Mohd. Suffian bin Hashim
Lord President of the Federal Court, Malaysia

ALL INDIA REPORTER LTD.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	... (iii)
INTRODUCTION
Malaysia in brief	... 4
Malaysia and Singapore	... 5
Olden days	... 6
Malaysia's present constitutional and legal system	... 10
Malaysia Colonized by British via India	... 12
Ideas imported from India	... 14
Advent of Islam	... 16
Laws imported from India	... 18
Brief description of Malaysian Judiciary	... 21
Constitution	... 25
Birth of the Malaysian Constitution	... 27
Indian Model	... 30
Similarities	... 31
Differences	... 33
King	... 35
Sultans and Governors	... 40
Conference of Rulers	... 40
Survival of Royalty	... 41
THE JUDICIARY
In Malaysia justice a federal subject	... 45
Chief Justice's responsibility for court administration	... 46
Support staff of the Judiciary	... 47

	Page
Involvement of legislature	... 47
Removal of Judges	... 48
Retirement of Judges	... 50
Salaries	... 52
Independence of the Judiciary	... 54
EMERGENCY POWERS	... 59
Subversion	... 61
Emergency powers	... 63
Emergency in the Philippines	... 69
Preventive detention	... 71
Presidential Rule	... 73
Breakdown of Government in the State of Sarawak	... 73
Breakdown of Government in the State of Kelantan	... 80
Validity of ordinances	... 83
CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATIONS BY MALAYSIAN AND INDIAN COURTS	... 101
Emergency Powers	... 104
Power to amend the Constitution	... 105
Personal liberty: right to a passport	... 106
Protection of Public Servants	... 108
Right to a post?	... 117
Equal protection	... 128
Right to property	... 142

Conclusion	...	152
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS	...	155
Amendments that require a two-thirds majority in each House of Parliament and the consent of the Conference of Rulers	...	157
Amendments that require a two-thirds majority in each House of Parliament and the concurrence the Governor of the Borneo State or each of the Borneo States concerned	...	159
Amendments that simply require a two-thirds majority in each House of Parliament, irrespective of the consent of the Conference of Rulers and the concurrence of the Governors of East Malaysia	...	162
Amendments that require a simple majority	...	162
Emergency amendments	...	164
Enlargement of the Federation by formation of Malaysia	...	164
Separation of Singapore	...	168
Federal Capital	...	170
Limitations on Parliament's power to amend the Constitution	...	171
Are constitutional amendments a good thing?	...	179
MISCELLANEOUS	...	183
Attorney-General	...	183
Malays and Natives of Borneo	...	188

Public Service	... 189
Commerce	... 190
Education	... 192
Conclusion	... 192
Change of Government	... 194
Organization of Political Parties	... 195
Corruption	... 196
Politics and Religion	... 199
Malaysia as viewed from London	... 201
Epilogue	... 207
About the Distinguished Speaker	... 211
Table of Cases	... 213