

ACHIEVING HEALTH
FOR ALL
BY THE YEAR
2000

MIDWAY
REPORTS
OF COUNTRY
EXPERIENCES

EDITED BY
E. TARIMO & A. CREESE

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION
GENEVA

Contents

Preface— H. Nakajima	v
Introduction	1
Burkina Faso: building on the successes — B. M. Sombié	5
Canada: maintaining progress through health promotion — R. A. Spasoff & T. Hancock	30
China: the goal is attainable — Zhu Ao-rong	54
Egypt: winning in spite of economic problems — A. G. Khallaf	64
Ethiopia: the course is charted — G. Tadesse	80
Finland: a pioneer of health for all — R. Salmela	98
Hungary: the quest for health for all — I. Forgacs & G. Simon-Kiss	122
Indonesia: implementation of the health-for-all strategy — S. Yahya & R. Roesin	133
Malaysia: moving from infectious to chronic diseases — I. Pathmanathan & S. Dhairiam	151
Mozambique: primary health care in the worst conditions — A. J. R. Cabral & A. Noormahomed	173
The Netherlands: the hurdle race to primary health care — J. van der Zee	188
Nigeria: developing the primary health care system — O. Ransome-Kuti	202
Papua New Guinea: resistance encountered and overcome — Q. Reilly	213

CONTENTS

Sri Lanka: deep roots in primary health care
— M. Fernando & T. Cooray	229
Thailand: from policy to implementation
— A. Nondasuta & R. Husdee	244
The lessons of the country reports	256