

The Horses of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police

A PICTORIAL HISTORY

William and Nora Kelly

CONTENTS

Preface 9
Acknowledgements 12

- 1 The Birth of the Force 15
 - How the Force Came To Be 15
 - Making Ready for the March West 17
 - The Great March West 30

- 2 Bringing Law and Order to the Canadian Frontier 53
 - Early Patrol and Escort Duties 53
 - War on the Home Front: The North-West Rebellion 81
 - Post-Rebellion Policing 85
 - Indian Ponies and Pack Horses 96
 - Northern Service 102

- 3 Into the Modern Era 109
 - Overseas Duty: The RNWMP and the Russian Revolution 109
 - Strike Duty in Winnipeg 113
 - The Decline of the Horse for Police Work 116

- 4 Breeding 127
 - The Force Breeds Its Own Horses 127
 - Mares and Stallions 134
 - From Foals to Remounts 141
 - Off-Colour Horses 144
 - Retired Horses 154

5	Training and Tack	157
	The Training of Remounts	157
	Equitation Training of Recruits	166
	Saddles	181
	The Shabrack	190
	Bridles	191
	Artisans	195
6	The Musical Ride	199
	The "Ride" Through the Years	199
	The Performance: Movements and Music	210
	The Riders	225
	The Lance	227
7	Special Occasions	231
	Ceremonials in Canada's Capital	231
	Jubilees and Coronations	236
	Sports and Exhibitions	253
	The Force and Hollywood	260
8	The Horses the RCMP Gave the Queen	265
	Burmese	265
	Centennial	276
	Bibliography	283
	Index	285