

WAR CRIMES AND INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY:

A PRIMA FACIE CASE FOR THE INDICTMENT

OF

SLOBODAN
MILOSEVIC

hls
30/1/98

4.138

WIL

Prepared by PAUL WILLIAMS & NORMAN CIGAR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I.	Introduction	1
	A. Object and Purpose	1
	B. Basic Facts and Definitions	2
	1. International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia	2
	2. Slobodan Milosevic	3
	3. Yugoslav Federal Army and Security Forces	3
	4. Republic of Serbia Forces and Agencies	3
	5. Serbian Paramilitary Agents	4
	C. Sources	4
II.	The Legal Basis of Individual Responsibility for the Commission of War Crimes	5
	A. Acts or omissions constituting a war crime	5
	B. Defining individual responsibility for the commission of war crimes	6
	C. Establishing individual responsibility for the commission of war crimes	7
	D. Establishing the individual responsibility of Slobodan Milosevic for the commission of war crimes in the territory of the former Yugoslavia	8
III.	Whether Serbian forces and their paramilitary agents committed war crimes in Bosnia and Croatia	9
	A. The commission of war crimes by Yugoslav Federal forces	9
	1. Vukovar	10
	2. Srebrenica	11
	B. The commission of war crimes by Republic of Serbia forces and agencies	12

1.	War crimes committed by the Republic of Serbia forces and agencies operating in the territory of the former Yugoslavia	12
2.	War crimes committed by Serbian paramilitary agents in the territory of the former Yugoslavia under the direction of Republic of Serbia forces and agencies	12
C.	The commission of war crimes by Serbian paramilitary agents	13
1.	Arkan's Tigers (SDG)	14
2.	Affiliated Serbian paramilitary agents	15
D.	The commission of war crimes by the Bosnian Serb Army and the Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina	17
E.	Summary	18
IV.	Whether Slobodan Milošević is individually responsible for ordering, planning, or instigating the commission of war crimes in Bosnia and Croatia by Serbian forces and their paramilitary agents, by virtue of his official and/or effective control over those forces	18
A.	Slobodan Milošević directed the commission of war crimes	19
B.	Slobodan Milošević exercised power, influence, and control over the Yugoslav Federal and Republic of Serbia forces and agencies and their paramilitary agents responsible for the commission of war crimes.	21
1.	Slobodan Milošević exercised power, influence, and control over the Yugoslav Federal forces and agencies.	23
a.	By virtue of the fact that Republic of Serbia institutions, under the official and actual control of Slobodan Milošević, have absorbed or pre-empted Federal institutions and their functions, Slobodan Milošević exercised power, influence, and control over those institutions	23
b.	As a formal member of the Yugoslav Supreme Defense Council, Slobodan Milošević exercised power, influence, and control over the JNA and Yugoslav Army	25
c.	By virtue of his political power base in the region, Slobodan Milošević exercised power, influence, and control over Yugoslav Federal institutions, including the JNA and Yugoslav Army	25

d.	Slobodan Milosevic demonstrated his power, influence, and control over the political and military institutions of the Yugoslav Federal government by his control of Yugoslav foreign policy and representation of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia during international negotiations.	26
2.	Slobodan Milosevic exercised power, influence, and control over the Republic of Serbia forces and agencies	27
a.	As President of the Republic of Serbia, Slobodan Milosevic exercised power, influence, and control over the Republic of Serbia forces and agencies	27
b.	As President of the ruling Socialist Party of Serbia, Slobodan Milosevic exercised power, influence, and control over the Republic of Serbia forces and agencies	28
3.	Slobodan Milosevic exercised power, influence, and control over Serbian paramilitary agents	29
a.	As formal units of the command structure of the Yugoslav Federal forces, Serbian paramilitary agents were subject to Slobodan Milosevic's power, influence, and control	29
b.	As informal units of the command structure of the Republic of Serbia forces and agencies, Serbian paramilitary agents were subject to Slobodan Milosevic's power, influence, and control	30
C.	Summary	31
V.	Whether Slobodan Milosevic is individually responsible for aiding and abetting the commission of war crimes in Bosnia and Croatia, by virtue of the fact that Serbian forces under his power, influence, and control aided and abetted the commission of war crimes by Serbian paramilitary units, and the Bosnian Serb Army and the Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina	32
A.	Yugoslav Federal forces and Republic of Serbia forces and agencies subject to the power, influence, and control of Slobodan Milosevic aided and abetted the commission of war crimes by Serbian paramilitary agents.	33
1.	Republic of Serbia forces and agencies had notice that Serbian paramilitary agents would commit war crimes	33

2.	Republic of Serbia forces and agencies were active in the initial organization of Serbian paramilitary agents	34
3.	Republic of Serbia forces and agencies were active in the provision of financial and other necessary resources for Serbian paramilitary agents	36
4.	Republic of Serbia forces and agencies were active in the provision of weapons for Serbian paramilitary agents	37
5.	Yugoslav Federal forces engaged in joint operations with paramilitary agents operating in Bosnia and Croatia, which had the effect of aiding and abetting the commission of war crimes	38
6.	Republic of Serbia forces and agencies facilitated the expulsion of Muslim civilians from Bosnia by Serbian paramilitary agents, and their subsequent illegal expropriation of Bosnian property	39
B.	Republic of Serbia and Yugoslav Federal forces subject to the power, influence, and control of Slobodan Milosevic were active in aiding and abetting the Bosnian Serb Army and Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina in the commission of war crimes	40
1.	Yugoslav Federal forces engaged in joint operations with the Bosnian Serb Army and the Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina	41
2.	Yugoslav Federal forces provided the Bosnian Serb Army and the Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina with substantial material support	41
3.	Yugoslav Federal forces provided the Bosnian Serb Army and the Army of the Republic of the Serbian Krajina with both funding and personnel	42
C.	Summary	43
VI.	Whether Slobodan Milosevic, as a superior authority, is individually responsible for the war crimes committed by Serbian forces and their paramilitary agents, by virtue of his command responsibility for the acts of those forces	44
A.	Slobodan Milosevic had actual, constructive, and imputed notice of the commission of war crimes by Yugoslav Federal and Republic of Serbia forces and agencies and their Serbian paramilitary agents.	45

1.	Slobodan Milosevic had actual notice of the commission of war crimes by those under his superior authority by virtue of the fact that he received regular reports related to the activities of those responsible for war crimes	45
2.	Slobodan Milosevic had constructive and imputed notice of the commission of war crimes by those under his superior authority by virtue of the fact that frequent and regular public reports were made of the activities of those responsible for war crimes	46
B.	Slobodan Milosevic failed to take such appropriate measures as were within his power to prevent and punish the commission of war crimes by forces under his authority or control	48
1.	Slobodan Milosevic failed to take action within his power to prevent the commission of war crimes.	48
a.	Slobodan Milosevic failed to prevent the commission of war crimes when it was within his power to do so	49
b.	Slobodan Milosevic, in some instances, facilitated the commission of war crimes	50
2.	Slobodan Milosevic failed to take measures within his power to punish those responsible for war crimes.	51
a.	Slobodan Milosevic failed to punish those responsible for the commission of war crimes when it was within his power to do so	51
b.	Slobodan Milosevic permitted actions by agencies under his official control that legitimized individuals responsible for the commission of war crimes	53
c.	Slobodan Milosevic, in some instances, promoted those individuals responsible for the commission of war crimes	53
C.	Summary	54
VII.	Conclusion	54
	ENDNOTES	56