

Fukuzawa Yukichi on Education

Selected Works

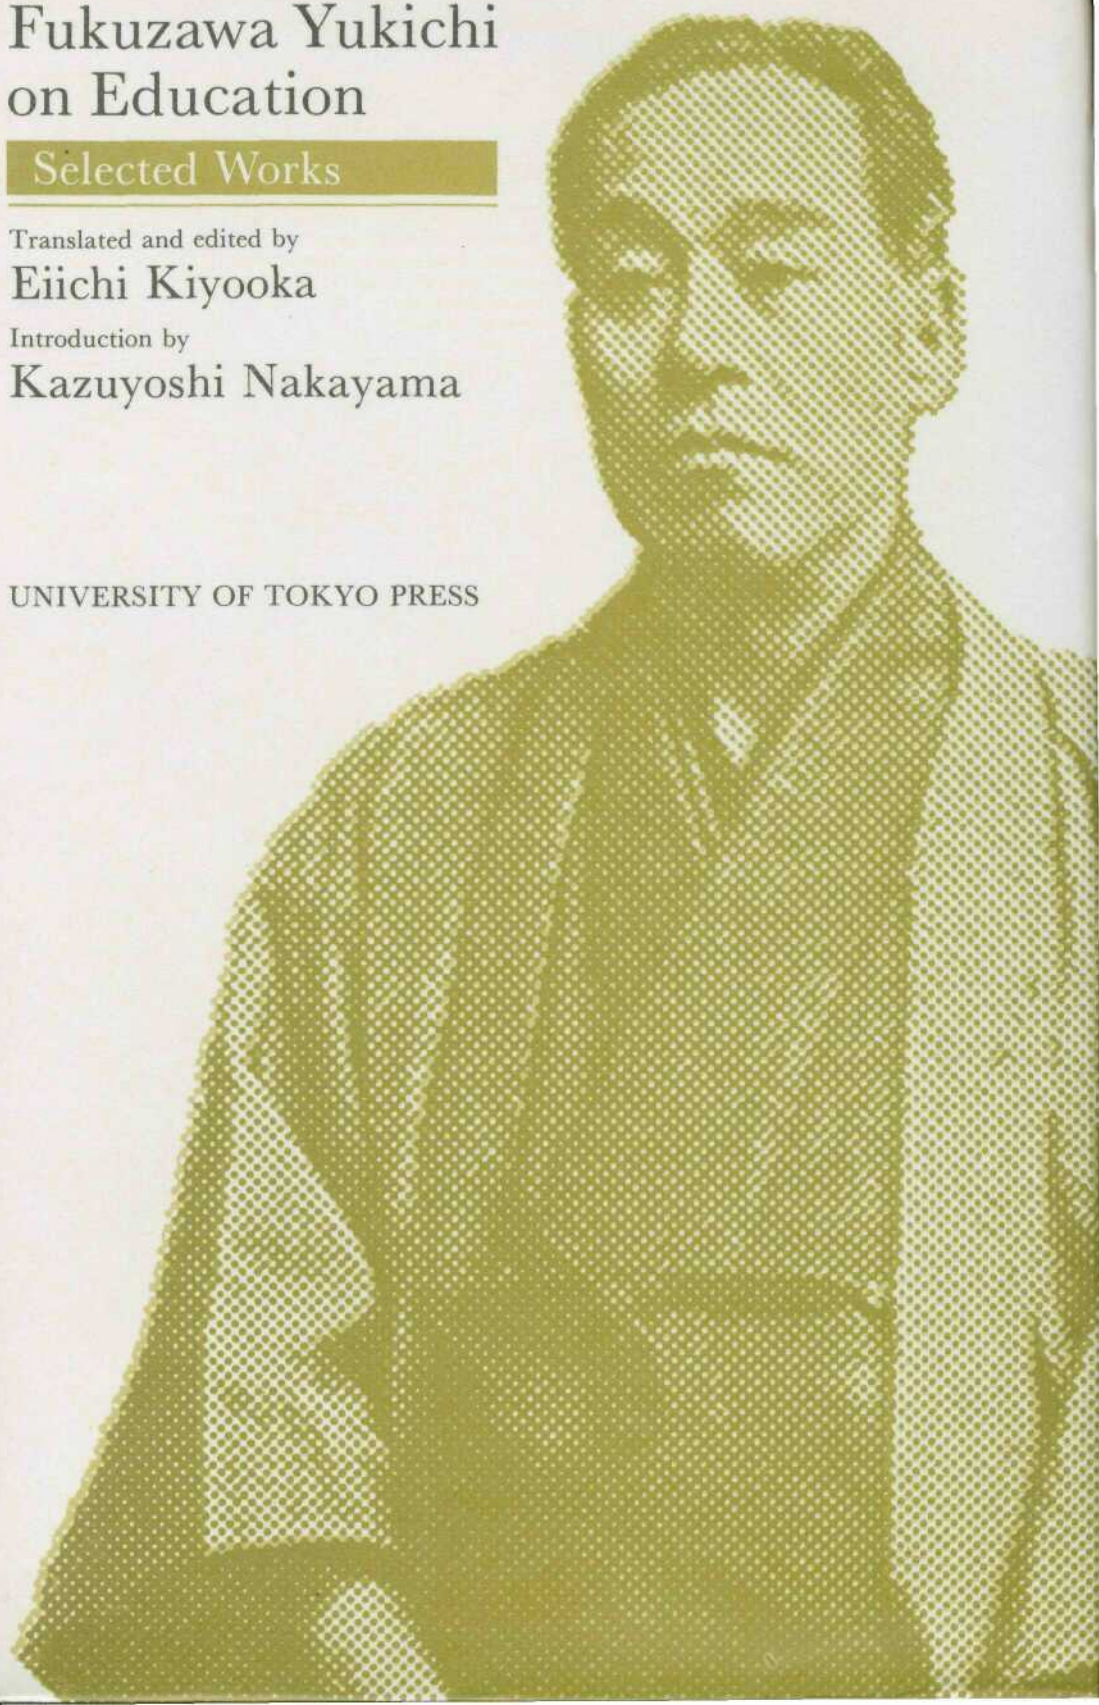

Translated and edited by

Eiichi Kiyooka

Introduction by

Kazuyoshi Nakayama

UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO PRESS

Contents

Introduction vii

1. Things Western 3
2. Pronouncement at the Inauguration of Keiō Gijuku 15
3. Regulations 21
4. New Order for Keiō Gijuku 27
5. Agreements Among the Members of the Corporation 31
6. Words Left Behind in Nakatsu 35
7. Preface to the Penmanship Copybook 43
8. Daily Lessons 47
9. Announcement for Nakatsu Town School 57
10. Encouragement of Learning, Essay One 65
11. The School System in Kyoto 73
12. Preface to Methods of Bookkeeping 79
13. Encouragement of Learning, Essay Four 85
14. Encouragement of Learning, Essay Five 93
15. Outline of Civilization 101
16. On Moral Education: A Letter in Reply to Nakamura Ritsuen 111
17. A Bequest of Old Coins to Children 119
18. The Importance of Physical Sciences 123
19. Social Sciences Shall Also Be Studied 127
20. On the Imperial Household 133
21. Questions on Moral Education 149
22. The Independence of Learning 163
23. Confucian Doctrine 189
24. Objectives of Education at Keiō Gijuku 201

CONTENTS

25. Speech Delivered at the Inauguration of the English Law School	207
26. Speech Delivered to Senior Alumni	211
27. Do Not Lose Yourself in Learning	217
28. When Educational Policy Changes	223
29. Speech Delivered at the Unveiling of His Statue	227
30. Speech Delivered at His Sixtieth Birthday Celebration	233
31. One Hundred Discourses of Fukuzawa	239
32. Fukuzawa's Last Testament	249
33. Publication and Certification of Textbooks	255
34. Speech Delivered to the Students on the Reorganization of the Schools	259
35. Fukuzawa's Moral Code	269
References	275
Index	277