

KOGAN PAGE

Mega - Universities

and Knowledge

Media

Technology Strategies for Higher Education

John S Daniel

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vi
Series Editor's Foreword	vii
Foreword by Russell Edgerton, President of the American Association for Higher Education	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Glossary of Acronyms	xii
Introduction	1
1. University Renewal for a New Millennium	4
Where are those new universities?	4
Education for all: an imperative for world security	5
Comfort of continuity; challenge of change	6
Universities and quality	8
Technology and the agenda for renewal	10
Summary	12
2. Challenges on Campus	13
A world of contrasts and similarities	13
Universities and governments	14
Challenges and opportunities	16
The undernourished core	17
An example: the University of Utah	19
Visions of the technological future	22
From vision to reality	24
Summary	27
3. The Mega-Universities	29
What is a mega-university?	29
Why study the mega-universities?	30
Why were the mega-universities established?	33
Current roles in national policy	33
Access to communications facilities	34
Linkages to the rest of higher education	35

Students	37
Student performance	37
Curricula	38
Research	38
Cost-effectiveness	39
Operating systems	40
Production processes	41
Quality and recognition	42
International roles	43
Implications for campus universities	43
Summary	44
4. The Essentials of Distance Education	46
Introduction	46
History	47
Technology	50
Pedagogy	56
Economy	60
Summary	65
5. Universities and Competitive Advantage	67
Renewal and competition	67
Competitive advantage: key concepts	68
The success of the mega-universities	70
Implications	72
The value chain	73
The value chain and cost advantage	78
The value chain and differentiation	79
Technology and competitive advantage	80
Tests of sustainable advantage	81
Technology and industry structure	82
Issues in developing a technology strategy	83
Formulating a technology strategy	84
Summary	85
6. Making Technology Attractive	86
Will students want it?	86
The technology adoption life-cycle	88
Crossing the chasm	90
The whole product	91
From the bowling alley to the tornado	93
On to Main Street	96
Competitive advantage	97

Strategic partnerships	98
Organizational leadership	99
Summary	100
7. The Knowledge Media	101
Introduction	101
The agenda for renewal	103
Teaching effectiveness and learning productivity	105
Recreating the academy as a community	122
Production and delivery of courses and intellectual assets	129
Logistics in dispersed institutions	132
Summary	135
8. Implementing a Technology Strategy	136
Framework for a technology strategy	136
Technology strategies for campus universities	142
A technology strategy for a mega-university: the UKOU	149
Summary	162
Conclusions	163
Appendix. The Mega-Universities: Profiles	166
The China TV University System (CTVU)	166
The Centre National d'Enseignement à Distance (CNED), France	169
The Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), India	172
Universitas Terbuka (UT), Indonesia	175
Payame Noor University (PNU), Iran	177
The Korea National Open University (KNOU), Korea	180
The University of South Africa (UNISA)	182
Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia (UNED), Spain	186
Sukhothai Thammathirat Open University (STOU), Thailand	188
Anadolu University (AU), Turkey	191
The Open University (UKOU), United Kingdom	193
 Bibliography	 197
Subject Index	206
Name Index	209