

CROSSROADS

*A Popular History of Malaysia
Singapore*

"A must-read for those puzzled about what's behind recent headlines from Southeast Asia."

—Kenneth L. Whiting, Associated Press
Chief of Bureau for Singapore, Indonesia,
Malaysia, and Brunei (1974–1997)

Jim Baker

959.57
BAK

CROSSROADS

*A Popular History of Malaysia
Singapore*

Jim Baker

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1005684

TIMES BOOKS INTERNATIONAL
Singapore • Kuala Lumpur

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments 6

Introduction 8

CHAPTER 1

— Early Malaysia and Its Indigenous People 13

Climate and the Land 13

The People 20

CHAPTER 2

— Indian Influence and Early Empires 31

Social and Political Changes 32

Pattern of Indianization 36

Melaka Empire 42

CHAPTER 3

— Europeans in the Archipelago 51

For Gold, Glory, and God 54

Dutch Challenge Portuguese Trade 59

The English Join In 63

CHAPTER 4

— The Malay World (1500–1700) 65

The Rise of Aceh 65

Johor and the Royal Family 68

Bugis Dominate in the Eighteenth Century 73

CHAPTER 5

— Britain Takes Control of the Crossroads 79

Renewed Interest in Asia 79

The Founding of Penang 82

Raffles and Singapore 87

CHAPTER 6

— Singapore in the Nineteenth Century 96

- Economic Growth 96
- Nature of Singapore's Population 101
- Government and Social Conditions 104
- A Crown Colony 108

CHAPTER 7

— The Malay Peninsula Until 1874 113

- Non-Intervention 117
- Tin Mining and Chinese Immigration 127
- Treaty of Pangkor 134

CHAPTER 8

— British Intervention 136

- State-by-State Intervention 136
- The Residential System 141
- Federated Malay States 146
- Unfederated Malay States 151

CHAPTER 9

— The British in Borneo 157

- Brunei Sultanate 158
- Sarawak and Brooke 161
- British North Borneo 170

CHAPTER 10

— Impact of British Rule on Malaya 175

- Rubber 176
- Modern Administration 179
- Health Care and Education 187
- Legacy of British Rule 193

CHAPTER 11

— Impact of British Rule on the Malays 195

CHAPTER 12

— Singapore Until 1942 204

- Trading and Financial Center 204
- Strategic Defense Center 208
- Emergence of an Immigrant Society 210

CHAPTER 13

- World War II and British Malaya 218
 - The Rise of Japan 218
 - The Occupation 225
 - Impact of the War 231

CHAPTER 14

- Malaya after the War 235
 - Malay Political Unity 236
 - The Emergency and the Communist Threat 242
 - Independence 250
 - The Malayan Constitution 253

CHAPTER 15

- Singapore: The Road to Self-Rule 261
 - Post-War Politics 264
 - Political Change in the 1950s 269
 - The 1955 Election 275
 - The Rise of the People's Action Party 281

CHAPTER 16

- Malayans Take Control 285
 - Malaya from 1957 285
 - Singapore from 1959 294
 - Borneo in the Twentieth Century 308
 - Federation of Malaysia 320

CHAPTER 17

- Malaysia since 1965 330
 - Status Quo Challenged 330
 - New Economic Policy 335
 - Political Change 341
 - Mahathir in Power 350
 - Impact of the New Economic Policy 355

CHAPTER 18

- Independent Singapore 365
 - Stability and Purpose 366
 - Search for a Common Destiny 371
 - New Political Directions 392

Bibliography 403

Index 412

About the Author 422