

Malaysia

and its neighbours

J M Gullick

505
JL

World studies series

959.509
GUL

Malaysia and its Neighbours

---

J. M. Gullick

LONDON
ROUTLEDGE & KEGAN PAUL

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1005685

CONTENTS

8. Memorandum of the Malaysia Solidarity Consultative Committee, 3 February 1962 (HMSO Cmnd. 1794 Appendix F)	page 60
9. Memorandum entitled North Borneo and Malaysia issued by the Government of North Borneo in February 1962 (HMSO Cmnd. 1794 Appendix E)	76
10-13.
Extracts from the Report of the Commission of Inquiry, North Borneo and Sarawak, 1962 (HMSO Cmnd. 1794)	86

PART II: DEFENCE ASPECTS

14. Agreement on External Defence and Mutual Assistance between the United Kingdom and Malayan Governments, October 1957 (HMSO Cmnd. 263)	98
15. Annex B to the Joint Statement by the United Kingdom and Malayan Governments, November 1961 (HMSO Cmnd. 1563)	103

PART III: INDONESIAN AND PHILIPPINE REACTIONS

16. Extract from A Survey of the Controversial Problem of the Establishment of Malaysia (issued by the Indonesian Embassy in London) February 1964	106
17. Extract from a Speech by Dr. Sukarno at Manila (published by the Indonesian Herald ) August 1963	109
18. The Manila Accord. June 1963	111
19. The Manila Declaration. August 1963	115
20. The Manila Joint Statement. August 1963	116
21. Extract from Speech by Tunku Abdul Rahman in the Malayan Parliament, 14 August 1963	120
22. Summary of Findings of the United Nations Malaysia Mission. September 1963	122
23. Extract from the Final Conclusions of the Secretary-General, United Nations Organisation. September 1963	131
24. Aide-Mémoire from the Indonesian Observers to the UN Malaysia Mission. October 1963	133

CONTENTS

25-26.	Extracts from Speeches at a meeting of the United Nations Security Council, 9 September 1964:	page	137
	25. The Malaysian Representative		141
	26. The Indonesian Representative		141
27.	Resolution of the United Nations Security Council, 17 September 1964		146
28.	A Guide to Philippine Claims to North Borneo (The Times 2 May 1962)		148
PART IV: ECONOMIC ASPECTS
29.	Extracts from the Report on the Economic Aspects of Malaysia by a Mission of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, July 1963		156
PART V: SINGAPORE WITHDRAWS FROM MALAYSIA
30.	Extracts from Malayan Chinese Association Election Speeches ( Straits Times , 22 April 1964)		166
31.	Extract from Inaugural Declaration of the Malaysia Solidarity Convention ( Straits Times , 10 May 1965)		167
32.	Letter from Tunku Abdul Rahman to Dr. Toh Chin Chye, 7 August 1965		168
33.	Letter from Dr. Toh Chin Chye to Tunku Abdul Rahman, 8 August 1965		169
34.	Statement by Tunku Abdul Rahman regarding Documents 32 and 33		170
35-36.	Challenge to Malaysia , two-part article published in The Times , 10 and 11 November 1965:
	I Mr. Lee's Gamble that Failed		172
	II Learning to Live Separately		175
	MALAYSIAN POPULATION STATISTICS		181
	PRINCIPAL POLITICAL PARTIES OF MALAYSIA		183
	BIBLIOGRAPHY		187
	SUBJECT INDEX		190

General Editor's Preface

---

The World Studies Series is designed to make a new and important contribution to the study of modern history. Each volume in the Series will provide students in sixth forms, Colleges of Education and Universities with a range of contemporary material drawn from many sources, not only from official and semi-official records, but also from contemporary historical writing and from reliable journals. The material is selected and introduced by a scholar who establishes the context of his subject and suggests possible lines of discussion and inquiry that can accompany a study of the documents.

Through these volumes the student can learn how to read and assess historical documents. He will see how the contemporary historian works and how historical judgements are formed. He will learn to discriminate among a number of sources and to weigh evidence. He is confronted with recent instances of what Professor Butterfield has called 'the human predicament' revealed by history; evidence concerning the national, racial and ideological factors which at present hinder or advance man's progress towards some form of world society.

In presenting his documents Mr. Gullick has made two vital points: first, the dilemma created by the working of democracy in a newly nationalist society (page 17); and secondly, the human drama that always colours governmental decisions, as expressed in the words of Tunku Abdul Rahman when making the break with Singapore:

'If I were strong enough and able to exercise complete control of the situation I might perhaps have delayed action, but I am not, and so while I am able to counsel tolerance and patience, I think the amicable settlement of our differences in this way is the only way out.' (page 169).

JAMES HENDERSON