

.5

L

PLEASE

Salleh Ben Jones

959.5
SAL

AS I PLEASE

Salleh Ben Joned

with

Introduction by Margaret Drabble

and Afterword by Adibah Amin

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1005692

TIMES EDITIONS

Contents

Preface	12
Introduction by Margaret Drabble	16
Essays
A Test to Pass	20
The Art of Pissing	41
A Little Knowledge is Not Always a Dangerous Thing	54
Is Nothing Sacred?	62
As I Please
The (Malay) Malaysian Writer's Dilemma	70
Testing the Parameter	75
Rojak is Good for Nation-Building	80
Neither a Campaign Nor a Conspiracy	85
Once Again, English Our English	90
Be Sophisticated and Silly All the Way	94
The Transformasi of a Language	99
Anti-Islam and All That Jazz	103
Muslim Writers and the Apostasy Law	107
Religion and Creative Freedom	111
Apostates of the World, Rejoice!	115
On Not Going the Whole Hog	120

Contents

Speaking Up for a Writer's Right	127
The Murder of a Poet	133
1492 and All That ...	137
Fugitive Thoughts on May 13	142
Women, Perfume and Prayer	147
In Praise of a "Wild Beast"	152
Homage to the Strong and Lonely	157
Jebat and Certain Feudal Matters	162
Noordin Hassan, Malaysian Playwright	168
In Memoriam, Isako San	172
Patriach as "Literary Lecher"	176
Kiss My Arse – In the Name of Common Humanity	180
The Spectre of "Corporate Lit"	188
Malay Lays of Life, Love and Laughter	192
Salacious Pleasures of Pantuns	197
Luna, Lunacies and Lovers	203
Brother Henri, Honorary Malay	208
The Lessons of Turtle Beach	212
Barbarians Among Barbarians	217
Thus Spake the Great Malay Minda	222
Afterword by Adibah Amin	227