

LAYANG LAYANG

A Drop in the Ocean

Nicolas Pilcher, Steve Oakley and Ghazally Ismail

Natural History Publications (Borneo)

C o n t e n t s

Foreword by Dr Mahathir Bin Mohamad vii

Where does one begin?	1
What is the reef doing here?	11
Filter feeders abound	21
Fishes: Who eats what, why, and how?	33
Diets in question	45
Grazers of the not so deep	51
Vacuum cleaners on the prowl	57
Scavengers keep a tidy reef	61
Not one without the other: Is there more than meets the eye?	67
The underwater construction team	85
The art of not being eaten	95
A ray of sunshine is all I need	103
The majestic, the rare and the rarely seen	105
The alien environment above the waves...	117

Acknowledgements 121