

The future has just begun

Preface – The drug of the century
We are proud of Aspirin	6
The extraordinary careers of a painkiller
The age of Aspirin	8
Bayer
The home of Aspirin	16
The history of Aspirin began more than 3,500 years ago
It started with nature	22
The main scientific laboratory
The scene of the discovery of the century	30
August 10, 1897
The hour of glory	32
The clinical trial
Paving the way to success	36
Finding the name
The certificate of baptism	38
The patent situation
Recognition in the USA	40
Aspirin's triumphal march
An international star is born	42
World-wide advertising
"Aspirinspirations"	44
Counterfeits
The imitators	46
Bayer Aspirin in the USA
Home again	50
The first career
The fortune of those afflicted by pain	52
Fighting pain
As old as mankind	54
Pain
An ingenious alarm system	56
Aspirin's mechanism of action
Inhibitions in abundance	62
Prof. Sir John R. Vane, the discoverer of the mechanism of action
The Nobel Prize winner	70
Mass suffering
A hellish headache	72

Aspirin for headaches and migraine Prevention is better than suffering!	76
Conversation with the American headache specialist Dr. Seymour Diamond Best experience	78
A new career For the heart and brain	80
Inhibition of platelet aggregation The life-saving (side-)effect	82
How Aspirin's second career began The correct conclusions	90
The breakthrough From household remedy to cardiac drug	92
Aspirin in acute myocardial infarction The 13-dollar life-saver	94
Aspirin for primary prevention Hope for millions	100
Conversation with Prof. Charles Hennekens I take Aspirin every day!	102
The "Aspirin papers" The largest collection of data in medical history	103
Aspirin in heart surgery and thrombosis prevention Open secret	104
Aspirin protects the brain Success against strokes	108
Conversation with stroke expert Prof. Marie-Germaine Bousser Aspirin – the reference drug in secondary stroke prevention	112
Pre-eclampsia and diabetes A real all-rounder	114
A third career in prospect Fight against cancer	118
Aspirin and side-effects In great shape	122
The production of Aspirin Better than ever	126
Aspirin in literature Caruso's little helper	128
The future has just begun The hundred-year-young drug	130