

MOTHER EARTH

An NGO proposal for actions to give a "Green Earth" to our children tomorrow.

Yoshiko Y. Nakano

34.92

NAK

OISCA-International

Contents

Prologue	1
Part 1: A Warning to Mankind	4
Part 2: Environmental Degradation Connected with Microgas	7
Part 3: The Current Situation of Deforestation and the Advancement of Desertification	14
Part 4: Why Deforestation Increases	17
Part 5: On the Variety of Forest Functions	23
Part 6: Forests Essential for Agriculture	25
Part 7: Japanese Culture and Tradition Closely Related to the "Green" Concept	28
Part 8: A Tree as an Object of Faith in Many Countries	32

Part 9:
	Youth and the 'Love Green' Movement	34
Part 10:
	Tree Planting Activities in Thailand	37
Part 11:
	People's Participation in a Community Forest, an Example from the Philippines	41
Part 12:
	Participation in Mangrove Rehabilitation	45
Part 13:
	The Importance of Tree-Planting in Nepal	48
Part 14:
	Political will Required to Promote Afforestation	53
Part 15:
	The Promotion of People's Consciousness Deserves High Priority	55
Epilogue		59
Annexe
	The Programmes Carried Out in Relation to OISCA's Love Green Movement (1980-1989)	63