

Malcolm Bird

THERE IS A BETTER WAY TO MANAGE

Contents

Introduction	ix
1. Attitudes to employees	1
Team spirit and motivation	1
Your staff are people too	4
Action check list	5
2. Training, development and delegation	7
The 'management-training-is-bunk' school	7
Mediocrity is self-generating	9
Action check list	10
3. Attitudes to new recruits	11
'We'd like to offer you the job . . .'	11
Preparing to welcome new recruits	14
Action check list	15
4. Attitudes to planning and achievement	17
'What do we want to achieve and how do we do it?'	17
Adjusting to changing circumstances	20
Action check list	22
5. The problems of change	23
External influences	23
Action check list	25
6. Attitudes to business techniques	27
'That would never work here'	27
Advantages of the right technique	28
Action check list	30

7. Management and the facts	31
'It is a well-known fact . . .'	31
The obstacles game	34
Action check list	36
8. Born leaders	37
A selection of damaging manager types	38
Developing the constructive approach	43
Action check list	44
9. Budgets, cash flow and realism	45
Never temper the financial truth	46
Controlling 'control'	47
Action check list	50
10. Computers	51
Your company's valuable tool or its 'white elephant'?	52
Micro- and mini-computers	54
A word on word processors	54
Action check list	55
11. Concentrating on what matters	57
Action check list	58
12. Avoiding decisions	59
A selection of avoidance actions	59
Decisions commonly ducked	61
Action check list	63
13. Organisation	65
Defining the organisational structure	66
Some pitfalls in weak organisation	67
The promotional ladder	70
Action check list	71
14. Communicating	73
Give it to them straight!	73
The rumour network	75
Action check list	76
15. System	77
Will it work?	77
Is it correctly operated?	78
Action check list	80

16. Salaries and other rewards	81
Fair and 'seen to be fair'	81
Don't under-value the 'back-room boys'	82
Misapplying appraisal schemes	83
Action check list	84
17. Manager traps	85
The 'I know best' syndrome	85
The 'I must approve' syndrome	86
The 'I must know' syndrome	86
The secretary barrier	88
Promoting the wrong person	88
Waiting for the decision	89
The absent VIP	89
The status symbol syndrome	90
The Personal Assistant	97
Committees	98
Secrecy	99
The abuse of O & M services	99
Wasting consultants' time -- and company money	100
The interview show-off	101
Action check list	103
18. For the acquisition of sound managerial skills . . .	105
. . . Study some model companies	106
. . . Consider some organised training	108
. . . Use films as a training aid	110
. . . Read relevant and useful books	111