

Edward deBono

Opportunities

A Handbook of Business Opportunity Search

Introduction	7
The opportunity search	10
Form of the book	12
Lateral thinking and opportunity search	14
Part I: People, attitudes and opportunities	19
The distinction between what is urgent and what is important	20
Problem-solving and problem-finding	22
Executive styles	28
The opportunity-negative structure	31
Obstacles to opportunity search	33
Cultural attitude towards opportunity	38
Corporate attitude towards opportunity	40
Executive attitude towards opportunity	46
What is an opportunity?	53
Levels of opportunity	64
Benefits and motivation	68
The opportunity dilemma	72
Part II: The Opportunity Audit and the Opportunity Team	75
Status of the opportunity search exercise	76
Elements of the opportunity search exercise	79
The Opportunity Audit	82
Opportunity space	87
Idea-sensitive areas and general opportunities	92
The specific opportunity objective	97

Progress reports	102
Opportunities in other areas	104
The Opportunity Manager	106
The Opportunity Team	110
Opportunity Task Force	123
Part III: Thinking for opportunities	127
Review of fundamental thinking processes	128
'Moving-in' and 'moving-out' as modes of thinking	137
Starting point check-list	140
End-point check-list	169
The treatment of ideas	189
'If-box' maps	204
Action structure for opportunity	213
Dealing with risk and uncertainty	220
Evaluation	228
Summary of Terms	243