

C1 Japan's

Managerial System

M.Y. Yoshino

Tradition and Innovation

Contents

1	The Tokugawa Heritage	1
	The Tokugawa Feudal System	3
	Values of the Tokugawa Society	4
	The Tokugawa Economic System	13
	The Decay of Feudalism	17
2	The Century of Modernization	19
	The Prewar Period — 1868-1945	19
	Early industrialization	20
	The Meiji ideology	23
	Brief encounter with liberalism	26
	The period of crisis	27
	Postwar Japan	29
	Years of occupation	29
	The phenomenal economic growth	32
	The postwar political climate	34
	The postwar society	36
	The Challenges That Lie Ahead	45
3	Business Ideologies in Prewar Japan	48
	The Framework of Analysis	48
	Entrepreneurial Ideology in the Early Period of Japan's Industrialization	50
	The Rise of Industrial Paternalism	65
4	Today's Japanese Executives and Their Ideologies	85
	The Emergence of a New Business Leadership	85
	The Background of the Typical Postwar Japanese Executive	88

	The Role of the Managerial Elite in Contemporary Japan	91
	Managerial Ideologies in Postwar Japan	95
5	Industrial Structure and New Enterprise Groupings		118
	Industrial Structure	118
	The prewar pattern	118
	The postwar pattern	123
	Enterprise Groupings Among Large Industrial Firms	129
	Corporate groupings based on prewar Zaibatsu ties	129
	Bank-centered groups	139
	The Vertical Link Between Large Firms and Small- to Medium-Size Enterprises	148
	Relationships with related firms	149
	Relationships with affiliated firms	154
6	Challenges of International Competition		162
	Competitive Behavior of Large-Scale Firms	163
	Reorganization of the Industrial Structure	177
	More Recent Developments	188
7	Organizational Structures and Practices		196
	Organizational Structure	197
	Problem Areas and Recent Developments	210
8	Personnel Practices and Policies		225
	The Managerial Career	227
	Recent Developments in the System of Reward	235
	Management Development	243
	Formal educational programs	243
	Systematic programs for career development	250
9	The Decision-Making Process		254
	The Ringi System of Decision-Making	254
	Improvements in the Ringi System	262
	Afterword		273
	Bibliography		276
	Index		285