

GLOBAL DISASTERS

Inquiries Into Management Ethics

Robert E. Allinson

Contents

Introduction	1
1 The Conceptual Foundations	5
2 The Ethical Foundations	22
3 The Buck Stops Here and It Stops Everywhere Else As Well	39
4 The Sacredness of the Bottom Line or the Japanese Model of External Crisis Prevention Management	51
5 The Institutionalization of the Will to Communicate in Japanese Companies: The Key to Internal Crisis Prevention Management	70
6 Crisis Management and Disaster Prevention Management	92
7 The Challenger Disaster	105
8 Post- Challenger Investigations: Has Anything Changed?	152
9 The King's Cross Underground Fire Disaster	164
10 The Herald of Free Enterprise Disaster	190
11 The Disaster on Mount Erebus	211
Appendix 1: A further self-contradiction in the Privy Council ruling	253
Appendix 2: A simplified outline of Mount Erebus events	255
Appendix 3: On the legality of the findings of the Privy Council	258
12 Moral Responsibility and the Rise of the Techno-Organization	260
Index	277