
MULTINATIONAL MANAGEMENT

Business Strategy and Government Policy

Second Edition

Yoshi Tsurumi

CONTENTS

List of Figures	xiii
List of Tables	xv
List of Exhibits	xix
Preface	xxiii
Chapter 1
A New Global Competition: U.S.-Japan Comparisons	1
1. A New World	1
2. Systemic Competition between the United States and Japan	2
3. U.S.-Japan Conflicts over Automobiles	4
4. Fallacies of U.S. Debates of “Industrial Policies”	7
5. Two Guiding Principles of Japan’s Administered Market Competition	9
A Selected Reference	11
Exercise Questions	12

Chapter 2
Recording and Diagnosing International Transactions	15
1. What is Multinational Management?	15
2. The Functions of Multinational Business	17
3. Evaluation of the Economic Performance of a Firm	19
4. The Economic Performance of Peterson's Firm	21
5. Anything International?	24
6. Risks of International Business	26
7. Break Even and Cash Flow Analysis	29
8. Currency Risks: A Business Opportunity	30
9. A Fully Grown Multinational Firm	30
Exercise Questions	31
Case 1: Pacific Trading Company	32
Chapter 3
Basic International Finance for Multinational Managers: Foreign Exchange Markets and Balance of Payments	37
1. International Politics of Money	37
2. A Relevant History: International Liquidity and the IMF	38
3. Foreign Exchange Markets	43
4. Forecasting Foreign Exchange Rates	46
5. "Offshore" Money Markets	53
6. U.S. Government Regulations and International Banking	57
7. The Future of International Banking	61
8. Balance of Payments: Transactional Accounts and Adjustment Processes	63
9. Correcting Balance of Payments Imbalances	70
10. International Corporate Finance	72
A Selected Reference	75
Exercise Questions	76
Chapter 4
International Trade: Government Policies and Business Strategies	79
1. International Trade Theories	82
2. Business Policy Implications of the PLC Theory	97
3. Riding the PLC Upstream	98

4. Micro-International Economics: The Business Strategy of a Firm	99
5. The Export Trading Company Act of the United States: The Beginning of a New Industrial Policy	102
6. The Sogoshosha : General Trading Companies	107
A Selected Reference	120
Exercise Questions	122
Case 2: Bayerisch Wurst-Machine GmbH	123
Chapter 5
Price and Income Elasticities of Demand and International Marketing	127
1. Applications of Price and Income Elasticities of Demand	128
2. Definition and Interpretation of the Price Elasticities of Demand	129
3. Statistical Estimation of Elasticities	137
4. Income Elasticity of Demand	140
5. Long-term Price and Income Elasticities of Demand	141
6. International Marketing Implications	143
Exercise Questions	144
Chapter 6
Foreign Market Analysis	147
1. Repackaging Marketing Mix	148
2. Market Research and Test Market	156
3. Entry Formats for Foreign Markets	161
A Selected Reference	163
Exercise Questions	164
Case 3: Fried Chicken in Japan	165
Chapter 7
Foreign Direct Investment	181
1. Introduction	181
2. Foreign Direct Investment versus Foreign Portfolio Investment	184
3. Records of Foreign Direct Investments	186
4. Theories of Foreign Direct Investment	192
A Selected Reference	207
Exercise Questions	209

Chapter 8
Decision Processes of International Investments	211
1. Evaluation of Foreign Investment Projects	211
2. Risk Sensitivity Analysis	217
3. Financing the Overseas Subsidiary during Periods of Currency Fluctuations	219
Appendix 8A: Present Value Analysis of Investment	223
A Selected Reference	228
Exercise Questions	229
Chapter 9
Organizing Multinational Activities: Corporate Structure and Ownership	231
1. Strategy and Structure	233
2. Evolution of Internal Structures	235
3. Uses of Export Trading Companies for International Trade	241
4. The Ownership of Foreign Subsidiaries	243
5. Conclusion	250
A Selected Reference	250
Exercise Questions	252
Chapter 10
Management Control of Multinational Firms	255
1. International Reporting	256
2. Translation Exposure	257
3. Informational Distortions and Tax Treatments of Foreign Exchange Losses	260
4. Transfer Pricing of International Business	262
5. Taxation of International Business	266
A Selected Reference	269
Exercise Questions	270
Case 4: Chesebrough-Pond's Uruguay	271
Chapter 11
Comparisons of American and Japanese Corporate Culture	281
1. A Closer Look at Japan's "Lifetime" Employment System	282
2. A General Theory of Japanese Management System	284
3. Decisionmaking Processes of Japanese Corporations	295

4. Internal Working of Japanese White Collar Organization: A Case of Sogoshosha	299
A Selected Reference	310
Exercise Questions	311

Chapter 12

Successful Negotiations of Joint Ventures 313

1. Entry Format: Joint Venture versus Fully Owned Subsidiary	314
2. Selection of Business Partners: Import Agent	316
3. Selection of Business Partners: Joint Venture	317
4. Negotiations with Japanese Firms	320
5. Six "Don'ts" of Negotiations in Japan	322
Appendix 12A: Business with East Europe	326
A Selected Reference	336
Exercise Questions	337
Case 5: Picard Printing Products (B)	338

Chapter 13

International Transfer of Technology: National and Corporate Productivity 351

1. Definition of Technology	353
2. National Differences in Technological Focus	355
3. Multinational Firms as Agents of Technology Transfer	357
4. "QC Circle" as Japanese Productivity Know-how	367
5. Selection of Requisite Production Process-related Technology	371
6. National Policies of Productivity Growth	373
A Selected Reference	376
Exercise Questions	378

Chapter 14

Natural Resources Industries and World Politics 381

1. Vertically Integrated Firms	381
2. Vertical Integration and Barriers to Entry	383
3. Joint Ventures of Vertically Integrated Firms	387
4. Exporting Nations' Associations	396
5. Pricing by Commodity Cartels	398
6. Other Tactics of Emerging Commodity Associations	402

7. A Look at the Future	403
8. The International Politics of Oil	405
A Selected Reference	414
Exercise Questions	415
Case 6: AMAX-Mitsui (A)	416

Chapter 15

Multinational Firms and Political Risks:
Social Cost Benefit Analysis of Foreign Direct Investments

435

1. The Criticism of Multinational Firms	436
2. Private Goals versus Public Goals	436
3. Four Myths that Influence the Policies of Developing Nations	438
4. Four Major Problems Facing Expatriate Managers	442
5. Planned Divestiture and Avoidance of Political Risks	445
6. The Screening of Foreign Investment	449
7. Accounting for the External Economies and Linkage Effects	458
A Selected Reference	464
Exercise Questions	466
Case 7: Kenya Galvanized Iron Sheet, Ltd.	468

Index 473

About the Author 491