

the

CHANGE MONSTER

THE HUMAN FORCES THAT FUEL OR FOIL CORPORATE
TRANSFORMATION & CHANGE

• JEANIE DANIEL DUCK •

CONTENTS

Preface

xi

PART ONE

THE CHANGE MONSTER: THE HUMAN AND EMOTIONAL ELEMENTS OF CHANGE

- 1 Battling the Monster: The Need to Think and Behave Differently 3
- 2 A Short Tour of the Change Curve: A Map for the Territory of Change 15

PART TWO

STAGNATION: THE MONSTER IN HIBERNATION

- 3 Demoralization and Denial: When What You Know Isn't So 39
- 4 Recognizing and Diagnosing the Condition: Helping People See the Truth 57

PART THREEPREPARATION: THE MONSTER AWAKES

- | | | |
|----------|--|-----|
| 5 | Gaining Alignment: Anxiety About the Future | 91 |
| 6 | Is Everybody Ready? When Emotions Become a Roller Coaster | 123 |
| 7 | Building an Appetite for Change: Moving to Productive Action | 133 |

PART FOURIMPLEMENTATION: THE MONSTER STOMPS OUT OF ITS HIDING PLACE

- | | | |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 8 | Plunging In: Time to Start Walking the Talk | 151 |
| 9 | Broadening the Involvement: Building Bench Strength and Leadership | 167 |
| 10 | Keep Talking: Formal and Informal Networks of Communication | 185 |

PART FIVEDETERMINATION: WHEN THE MONSTER RULES THE HALLWAYS

- | | | |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 11 | The Land In-Between: Asking the Hard Questions About the Organization and Its Future | 197 |
| 12 | The Leaders' Behavior: The Importance of Sustaining Energy | 207 |
| 13 | The Followers' Experience: Getting People Involved in the Issues | 217 |

-
- 14 The Importance of Commitment and Values:
Developing New Ways of Thinking and Acting 229

PART SIX

FRUITION: THE MONSTER IS SUBDUED, AT LEAST FOR NOW

- 15 Sweet and Dangerous Fruition: Reinforcing the Good 253
- 16 When the Old Becomes New Again:
Continuous Change 265
- Acknowledgments* 277
- Index* 281