

Stephanie Jones

MERCHANTS OF THE RAJ

Foreword by the Earl of Inchcape

Contents

---

List of Plates	viii
Foreword by the Earl of Inchcape	x
Author's Preface and Acknowledgements	xii
Names of Contributors	xiv
Introduction	1
1. The Historical Background, c.1840–1939	5
2. War and Nationalism, 1939–47	79
3. Independence and Partition, 1947–9	103
4. Reorganisation and Adaptation, c.1950s	135
5. The Beginnings of Indianisation, c.1960–76	221
6. Formal Indianisation and After, 1976–91	309
7. The Future	359
Conclusions	365
Appendix I Short Biographies of 'Merchants of the Raj'	385
Appendix II Selected Chronology, with Indian Political and Economic Background	397
Appendix III The Indian Companies Acts and Indian Managing Agencies	409
Appendix IV Glossary of Words in Common Usage among the British Business Community in Calcutta	415
Bibliography	421
Index	425

List of Plates

---

1. Mackinnon Mackenzie office exterior
2. Mackinnon Mackenzie office interior
3. Shipping in the Hooghly
4. Stores, Rivers Steam Navigation Company
5. Andrew Yule head office, Calcutta
6. Mr A. L. Cameron of Andrew Yule, President of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce soon after Independence, killed in a Hindu/Muslim riot
7. Mr Bhaskar Mitter, first Indian Chairman of Andrew Yule
8. Mr K.S.B. Sanyal, who retired as Chairman of Andrew Yule in 1991
9. Mr Harnam Wahi of Macneill & Barry and subsequently of the Assam Company
10. Sir Paul Benthall of Bird & Co.
11. Gradation of jute
12. Jute fibre
13. Wellington Jute Mill entrance
14. Champdany Jute Mill from the manager's bungalow
15. Mr John Weir of Champdany, photographed before leaving Dundee, late nineteenth century
16. Interior, Glasgow office of James Finlay, c.1907
17. Head Office staff of James Finlay in Glasgow, with tea map in the background
18. Mr Saroj Mehera of James Finlay
19. Shop in Moscow selling Finlay's tea
20. Shaw Wallace head office, Calcutta
21. Sir Anthony Hayward, last British Chairman of Shaw Wallace and last British President of the Bengal Chamber
22. Mr S.P. Acharaya, the last Chairman of Shaw Wallace before the sale to the Chhabrias
23. Gillanders head office, Calcutta
24. Balmer Lawrie head office, Calcutta

25. Sir Owain Jenkins of Balmer Lawrie
26. Sir John Jardine Paterson of Jardine Henderson
27. McLeod House, Calcutta
28. Duncan House, Calcutta
29. Standard Chartered Bank head office, Calcutta
30. The Bengal Chamber of Commerce
31. The board of Goodricke: Mr D.K. Mehra, Mr P. A. Leggatt, Mr S.K. Bhasin, Calcutta
32. Weighing the tea, Koomber tea garden, Cachar
33. Mr B.M. Khaitan of Macneill & Magor at the Races, Calcutta
34. Mr Gillem Sandys Lumsdaine and Mr J.L. Rikhye of Macneill & Magor
35. Babus of Macneill & Magor office
36. Packaging Macneill & Magor tea
37. J. Thomas tea auction room
38. Vinod Parek, first Indian Chairman of J. Thomas, later to join James Warren
39. Dipak Roy, who retired from J. Thomas in 1988
40. Hunting by elephant I
41. Hunting by elephant II
42. The Bengal Club
43. The Victoria Memorial, Calcutta
44. Tea on the lawn, Calcutta
45. Bungalow tennis before 1930
46. Memsahib in Darjeeling carried by Nepalese bearers
47. Darjeeling Light Railway

Note: Photographs in the author's collection of modern-day Calcutta were taken on 31 August 1991 by Mr Biresh Paul of Goodricke Group Ltd, Calcutta. Photographs of pictures in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, J. Thomas & Co. Pvt Ltd, the Bengal Club and Macneill & Magor were taken on 23 August 1991 by Mr Vivek Das, Calcutta. Photographs from the archives of James Finlay plc in Glasgow were loaned with the kind assistance of Mrs Monica Clough. The photograph of the author seen on the jacket was taken by Mr Biresh Paul of Goodricke Group Ltd, Calcutta