

EVERYMAN
ART LIBRARY

ART of the PACIFIC

Anne D'Alleva

Contents

INTRODUCTION The Power of Pacific Art 9

- Art and Prehistory in the Pacific 12
- Culture Areas of the Pacific 16
- Art and Power in the Pacific 18
- Understanding the Context of Pacific Art 23
- Tradition and Change in the Pacific 27

ONE New Guinea: Where Ornaments are Bright 31

- The Men's House: Center of Art and Power 33
- The Arts of Women: Alternatives and Complements to the Men's House 40
- Spirits and Ancestors 46
- Headhunting and Exchange: The Balance of Power 55

TWO Island Melanesia: The Path of Peace 63

- Grade Societies 65
- Ancestors and Funerary Rituals 70
- Ceremonial Gift-giving and Exchange 79
- Art, Leadership, and Social Control 87

THREE Polynesia: Where Sharks Walk on Land 95

- Gods and Ancestors 97
- Status and Display: The Decorated Body 107
- Textiles and Ceremonial Gifts 116
- Architecture and the Social Organization of Space 121

FOUR Micronesia: The Path of the House 127

- Gift-giving, Trade, and Exchange 129
- Protection and Power 132
- Patterns of Power 136
- Architecture and Community 140

CONCLUSION Tradition and Power in Contemporary Pacific Art 149

- The Role of the Artist 150
- Patronage and Power 152
- Confronting the Past: The Genealogy of the Present 156

TIMELINE 160

GLOSSARY 164

BIBLIOGRAPHY 167

PICTURE CREDITS 171

INDEX 173