

CHÂTEAUX
OF THE
LOIRE

MICHEL MELOT

CONTENTS

- I 7 THE LANDSCAPE
10 The river: The Loire and its embankments
12 The hillsides
14 The tributaries:
 14 The Loir and the Cher
 16 The Vienne and the Indre
18 Building materials:
 18 Timber from the oak forests
 20 Timberwork
 22 The limestone of Touraine
 24 The slate of Angers
 26 Variiegated brickwork
28 A mosaic of building materials
30 The château in its setting
- 2 35 THE HERITAGE
40 The inaccessible château
42 The defensive wall
44 The ramparts
46 The keep
48 The moat
50 The drawbridge
52 Parapet walks and machicolations
- 3 55 THE NEW KINGS
60 The manors of René d'Anjou
62 Royal architecture and bourgeois architecture
64 The royal châteaux:
 64 Loches
 66 Amboise
68 Louis XII at Blois
70 Architecture opening up to new policies
72 Transitional areas
74 The austere "residence" of an itinerant court
76 The queen's household
78 From austerity to magnificence
80 The gardens
82 Decoration in the Italian style
84 Chambord, a château built to charm and inspire awe
- 4 87 THE NEW LORDS
92 The town mansion
94 Built on the royal model
96 Country houses and town houses
98 A new style of ornamentation in prosperous cities
100 Refinement: The private town house
102 The Hôtel de Ville: An expression of power

5	105	AZAY-LE-RIDEAU, A MODEL
	110	The approach to Azay-le-Rideau
	112	The plan of the château with its angle towers
	114	The organization of the façade
	116	The design
	118	The staircase
	122	Ornamentation of the doors and window frames
	124	The dormers
	126	The roofs
6	129	VARIATIONS
	134	The new organizing principle: Balance
	136	The underlining of form
	138	Ornamentation accentuating the structure
	140	The importance of the staircase
	142	The staircase as motive force
	144	The straight staircase
	146	The staircase as backdrop
	148	The last outcrop of chivalry: The lantern at Chambord
	150	The influence of Pavia
	152	Flamboyant decor
	154	A taste for antiquity
	156	Cornices
	158	The emblematic function of dormers
7	161	THE NEW MASTERS
	166	Feudal nostalgia
	168	The new owners:
	168	The liberal aristocracy at Azay-le-Rideau
	170	The new industrialists at Chenonceaux
	172	The alliance of aristocracy and finance at Chaumont
	174	The royal residences and the state
	176	Restoration work
	178	Chambord and its park ...
	180	... an echo of the Absolute
	184	MAP OF CHÂTEAUX
	187	HISTORICAL OVERVIEW
	189	NOTES
	191	SOURCES OF QUOTATIONS
	193	BIBLIOGRAPHY
	197	INDEX
	203	ILLUSTRATIONS