

H TILAR SITTHU

O WITHERED LEAF FROM
THE RIVER MEKONG
AND OTHER POEMS

The SARPAY BEIKMAN award for the poetry book of the year 1961.
Acclaimed as "The Great Poet Laureate" by the Renowed association
"Indochina Venture Forum" of Japan.

CONTENT

● Review on Myanmar Contemporary Poet Laureate Htilar Sithu's Poems Rhythm of highPartiotism by Yang Zhen Kun	A
● Letter from Embassy of The Russian Federation in the Union of Myanmar, Yangon	O
● Letter from MR Timur Pulatov First Secetay- Coordinator of the International Association of writer's Unions, MOSCOW	P
● Comments by Ashin Ananda	Q
● Comments by Professor Hla pe	R
● Comments by MR. ITO KELLSWL	S
● Comments by Tetkotho Phone Naing	T
● Foreword	3
● Htilar Sithu	8
1. Uncouth Poet	18
2. Artist's Anxiety	20
3. Defiant pride of Art	22
4. Potitician's Tale	24
5. Love's Down Stream And UpStream	25
6. Composer of Poems	26
7. Before The Dawn	27
8. Experiences	31
9. The Day The Tears From Into Pods	32
10. Bitterness Against The Age	37
11. Thanbyuzayat	38
12. To the Fallen Comrade	43
13. The Old Mother And Her Sons	46
14. The Nation in the Affermath of the Resistance	52

15. To Upper Myanmar	71
16. Self-Humber	73
17. To Yugoslavia	75
18. Would The Deepest Part of The River Flow Against the Current.....	78
19. MAW's Summer	83
20. The Owner of the Deep Blue Waistcloth	85
21. On the Occasion of offering Flowers of Loving-Kindness to the Whole World	88
22. The last Nwght of a Poet	91
23. The End of a A Poets' Life	95
24. At the foot of Rakhine Yoma	100
25. The Sound of the Harp of Loving-Kindness	104
26. When The Rains Come	107
27. The Region of Umbrage	110
28. To Your Fine Abode	112
29. To A Young Poet	116
30. Repercussion.....	126
31. On The Occasion of Seeing The Mekong, The King of Rivers	127
32. O Withered Leaf on Mekong River	138