

Four Essays Leading to the Age of
All Mankind

09.829

ISH

TERUKATSU ISHIBASHI

CONTENTS

I. Third World Aid and Developed Countries7

| | |
|---|----|
| Introduction | 8 |
| 1. What is Third World Aid ? | 8 |
| 2. What are the developed countries ? | 9 |
| 3. The world situation | 10 |
| i. World-scale problems | 10 |
| ii. Problems in developed countries | 10 |
| 4. How people should cope with the present situation | 12 |
| i. The need to change lifestyles and ruling theories | 12 |
| ii. The significance of changing education | 13 |
| 5. Conclusion | 14 |
| Bibliography | 15 |

II. Stalin: The Origin of Terror17

| | |
|----------------------------------|----|
| Introduction | 18 |
| 1. The legacy of Russian history | 19 |
| 2. Ideological reasons | 21 |
| 3. The historical world currents | 23 |
| 4. Conclusion | 24 |
| Bibliography | 26 |

| | |
|---|----|
| III. The Significance of “The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers” | 27 |
| Introduction | 28 |
| 1. Human conduct and emancipation | 28 |
| i. Human conduct | 28 |
| ii. The emancipation from suppression | 29 |
| 2. What determines the direction in people’s way of life | 30 |
| i. Customs and Traditions | 30 |
| ii. The modern education system | 32 |
| 3. Conclusion | 33 |
| Bibliography | 35 |
| | |
| IV. Can the Japanese are able to transform their economic drive into a higher political and security profile in international affairs? | 37 |
| | |
| Introduction | 38 |
| 1. Action and Reaction | 39 |
| 2. European and Chinese thought | 41 |
| 3. The Japanese character according to “Higurashisuzuri” | 42 |
| 4. Conclusion | 45 |
| Bibliography | 47 |
| | |
| Postscript | 48 |