

AUSTRALIA

The Greatest Island

TEXT BY
ROBERT RAYMOND
PHOTOGRAPHY BY
REG MORRISON

Contents

Introduction	17
Cape Leeuwin to Eyre Peninsula	19
Yorke Peninsula to Wilson's Promontory	43
Tasmania and Bass Strait	83
Wilson's Promontory to Fraser Island	137
The Capricorn Group to Lizard Island	203
Princess Charlotte Bay to Roper River	237
Arnhem Land to Bathurst Island	271
Victoria River to Derby	297
Broome to Cape Leeuwin	321
Index	351

LEFT: Drainage patterns near the Staaten River, north of Karumba, Queensland. The tree-like channels are created by the rapid outflow of the tide, which cuts down through the salt crust to expose the underlying mud and sand.